When you're in New York the sculptor Louise Nevelson once said you're in perpetual resurrection She might have said the same thing about St Peter's Lutheran Church set in the heart of midtown Manhattan In the 1970s the church made a radical move scrapping its neo gothic building for a sleek modern structure in the shadow of a skyscraper The transformation was not just architectural Inside Nevelson created a shimmering chapel while over the years artists and designers such as Willem de Kooning Kiki Smith and Massimo and Lella Vignelli produced works for the sanctuary This fusion of modern art architecture and design was complemented by an innovative jazz ministry including funerals for Billy Strayhorn and John Coltrane and performances by Duke Ellington and other jazz legends For the first time this volume examines the astounding cultural output of this single church Just as importantly the story of St Peter's serves as a springboard for wider reflections on the challenges and possibilities which arise when religion and art intersect in the modern city Working from a wide range of disciplines including art history theology musicology and cultural studies a distinguished group of scholars demonstrate that this church at the center of New York City deserves an equally central place in contemporary scholarship The Heart of American Poetry Edward Hirsch, 2022-04-19

An acclaimed poet and our greatest champion for poetry offers an inspiring and insightful new reading of the American tradition We live in unsettled times What is America and who are we as a people How do we understand the dreams and betrayals that have shaped the American experience For poet and critic Edward Hirsch poetry opens up new ways of answering these questions of reconnecting with one another and with what's best in us In this landmark new book from Library of America Hirsch offers deeply personal readings of forty essential American poems we thought we knew from Anne Bradstreet's The Author to Her Book and Phillis Wheatley's To S M a Young African Painter on seeing his Works to Garrett Hongo's Ancestral Graves Kahuku and Joy Harjo's Rabbit Is Up to Tricks exploring how these poems have sustained his own life and how they might uplift our diverse but divided nation This is a personal book about American poetry writes Hirsch but I hope it is more than a personal selection I have chosen forty poems from our extensive archive and songbook that have been meaningful to me part of my affective life my critical consideration but I have also tried to be cognizant of the changing playbook in American poetry which is not fixed but fluctuating ever in flow to pay attention to the wider consideration the appreciable reach of our literature This is a book of encounters and realizations Metronome, 1928
