Tate Women Artists Alicia Foster, 2004-06-15 The Tate Collection houses work by over 250 women artists spanning five centuries In this celebration of women's creative endeavour Alicia Foster explores the achievement of these artists Those included range from the famous to the little known from Mary Beale to Tracey Emin from Eileen Agar to Rachel Whiteread In four chronological introductory essays Alicia Foster discusses the changes in the position of women artists from the seventeenth century when they were restricted in their choice of subject matter and medium and achieved little recognition to the present day art world which encompasses a dazzling array of women painters sculptors conceptual artists and video and film makers The author brings the latest critical analysis to bear on women's art introducing the major developments in its history its interpretation and reception Arranged alphabetically within the four sections texts on each artist survey her life work and exhibition history and give an informed insight into her individual contribution A concise bibliography and listing of women printmakers represented in the Tate provide an invaluable addition to this fascinating book Alicia Foster specialises in the work of women artists and has published on Victorian women artists fashion and artistic identity She is the author of Gwen John in the British Artists series Women Artists in the Tate Collection Tate (London), 1986 WOMEN ARTISTS IN BRITAIN 1520 - 1920 TIM. BATCHELOR, 2024 Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze, 2013-04-03 This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume London's Women Artists, 1900-1914 Mengting Yu, 2020-09-16 Drawing on untapped archives as well as aggregating a wide range of existing published sources this book recalibrates the understanding of women artists roles outputs and receptions in London during what was indubitably a vibrant and innovative period in the history of British art and in which the work of their male contemporaries is so well understood The book takes its starting point from Alicia Foster's article Gwen John's Self Portrait Art Identity and Women Students at the Slade School published in 2000 where the expression a talented and decorative group was coined to describe common attitudes towards women artists in the late 19th and early 20th century London This pejorative attribution strongly implied a status less significant to that of their male counterparts The author challenges this statement's basic tenet by casting a wide net in examining women's art education from the Slade School of Fine Art through to the role of its graduates within a selection of London's exhibition groups societies and publications This book also reconstructs from scratch the role of the Women's International Art Club WIAC hitherto entirely overlooked in art historical studies of the era This book will be of interest to students and researchers in art and cultural history gender studies and in sociological studies of pre War World War Britain Writing on the Wall Judith Collins, Elsbeth Lindner, Tate Gallery, 1993-01-01 The Tate Gallery keeper of the nation's premier collection of British and 20th century art owns over 1000 works of art by women representing some 228 artists In celebration of this rarely seen group of paintings sculptures and drawings 20 women writers were invited to select and write about their favourite piece owned by the Tate The result is this anthology which mirrors and marries women s creativity and imagination in two cultural forms International Women Artists and War, 1560-2023 Deborah A. Deacon,2024-09-25 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women s professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully Contemporary British Women Artists Rebecca Fortnum,2006-07-26 In this illuminating collection of new interviews some of the most important women artists practising in Britain today talk about their work their influences and their relationships sometimes ambivalent with the art historical canon Enlightening and frequently entertaining the interviews with artists spanning different generations and working in media as diverse as performance art painting sculpture video and installation give fascinating first hand insights into both the artists lives and the creative process Fortnum speaks to Tacita Dean Tanya Kovats Christine Borland Jane Harris Vanessa Jackson Tracey Emin Maria Lalic Hayley Newman Sonia Boyce Emma Kay Gillian Ayres Lucy Gunning Claire Barclay Maria Chevska Anya Gallacio Jemima Stehli Runa Islam and Paula Rego Women's Art Work Sophia Bennett,2020-04-21 Discover the work of female artists who have made their mark on the art world Women s Art Work introduces readers to the lives and work of the world s most renowned artists With a foreword from Tate s first female director Maria Balshaw this collection celebrates the creativity of women in more than 30 biographies investigating their practices and exploring their contributions to the art world Readers will learn about a diverse group of innovators like Frida Kahlo Cindy Sherman Ana Mendieta Lubaina Himid Cao Fei and the Guerrilla Girls From early pioneers to today s most radical creators these women have overcome obstacles broken boundaries and enriched our understanding of what art is and can be With a glossary of art terms a timeline of major milestones and educational sidebars this highly illustrated book is perfect for any art lover Additionally it features original interviews with living artists including Yayoi Kusama Lorna Simpson and Rachel Whiteread Featured artists include Eileen Agar Anni Albers Louise Bourgeois Sonia Boyce Claude Cahun Judy Chicago Tacita Dean Tracey Emin Cao Fei Simryn Gill Guerrilla Girls Natalia Goncharova Anthea Hamilton Barbara Hepworth Lubaina Himid Gwen John Joan Jonas Frida Kahlo Yayoi Kusama Agnes Martin Ana Mendieta Berthe Morisot Georgia O Keeffe Paula Rego Bridget Riley Doris Salcedo Cindy Sherman Lorna Simpson Dayanita Singh Gillian Wearing Rachel Whiteread Lynette Yiadom Boakye Fahrelnissa Zeid
