Prepared Diane Tavenner, 2019-09-17 A blueprint for how parents can stop worrying about their children's future and start helping them prepare for it from the cofounder and CEO of one of America's most innovative public school networks A treasure trove of deeply practical wisdom that accords with everything I know about how children thrive Angela Duckworth New York Times bestselling author of Grit In 2003 Diane Tavenner cofounded the first school in what would soon become one of America's most innovative public school networks Summit Public Schools has since won national recognition for its exceptional outcomes Ninety nine percent of students are accepted to a four year college and they graduate from college at twice the national average But in a radical departure from the environments created by the college admissions arms race Summit students aren't focused on competing with their classmates for rankings or test scores Instead students spend their days solving real world problems and developing the skills of self direction collaboration and reflection all of which prepare them to succeed in college thrive in today's workplace and lead a secure and fulfilled life Through personal stories and hard earned lessons from Summit's exceptional team of educators and diverse students Tavenner shares the learning philosophies underlying the Summit model and offers a blueprint for any parent who wants to stop worrying about their children's future and start helping them prepare for it At a time when many students are struggling to regain educational and developmental ground lost to the disruptions of the pandemic Prepared is more urgent and necessary than ever

Rethinking School Susan Wise Bauer, 2018-01-09 If you read only one book on educating children this should be the book With a warm informative voice Bauer gives you the knowledge that will help you flex the educational model to meet the needs of your child San Francisco Book Review Our K 12 school system isn't a good fit for all or even most students It prioritizes a single way of understanding the world over all others pushes children into a rigid set of grades with little regard for individual maturity and slaps disability labels on differences in learning style Caught in this system far too many young learners end up discouraged This informed compassionate and practical guidebook will show you how to take control of your child's K 12 experience and negotiate the school system in a way that nurtures your child's mind emotions and spirit Understand why we have twelve grades and why we match them to ages Evaluate your child's maturity and determine how to use that knowledge to your advantage Find out what subject areas we study in school why they exist and how to tinker with them Discover what learning disabilities and intellectual giftedness are how they can overlap how to recognize them and how those labels can help or hinder you Work effectively with your child's teachers tutors and coaches Learn to teach important subjects yourself Challenge accepted ideas about homework and standardized testing Help your child develop a vision for the future Reclaim your families priorities including time for eating together playing imagining traveling and yes sleeping Plan for college or apprenticeships Consider out of the box alternatives

Thriving in the 21st Century Barbara Frank, 2011-03 Today's children will reach adulthood in an economic environment unlike anything the world has ever seen The 21st century global economy is powered by an increasing rate of technological change as well as growing foreign competition both are contributing to the high U S unemployment rate and stagnating American wages How can we as parents prepare our children for success in this growing maelstrom that many are now calling the new normal In Thriving in the 21st Century Preparing Our Children for the New Economic Reality Barbara Frank demonstrates that we must move beyond the common wisdom of the 20th century that emphasized a college diploma and lifelong employment with a large company as the only way to success Instead we need to set our children on a new path one that will help them not just survive but thrive in the 21st century In this book you'll learn The Seven Strengths your child will need to prosper in the 21st century why they're needed and how you can develop them in your children The most efficient and increasingly popular way to give your child those Seven Strengths Why public education has failed to prepare our children for the 21st century How we can help our children become the lifelong learners needed in a rapidly changing global economy The surprising truth about today's colleges and universities How economic change is affecting a variety of career areas and which of them are projected to grow dramatically in the coming years This book is packed with ideas and resources for raising our children to become adults who respond proactively when faced with economic challenges and who can prosper during times of great change We can help our children reach young adulthood ready and able to tackle the future with all its challenges And that of course is the key we must prepare our children for the future not the past
