Teaching about Europe Margaret Shennan, 1991 Ranging across the whole curriculum and drawing on experiences in many European countries the author assesses the progress toward establishing a coherent European dimension in secondary education during the past 25 years through the initiatives of international organizations like the Council of Europe
Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Aspects of Modern Language Teaching in Europe Wolf Gewehr, 2002-03-11 From the teaching of grammar to the teaching of literature from classroom teaching to independent learning from role playing to CAL few books on teaching languages cover such a wide field In this book teaching experience and research from practitioners in four European countries throw new light on old problems faced every day while others reveal innovative teaching methods and new insights into how teachers and learners interact Sections include language learning strategies and computer assisted language learning facilitating individual progress through autonomous learning how to bring a foreign country alive in the classroom de mythologising grammar teaching how different types of dictionaries can make valuable contributions to language teaching teaching and using idiomatic phrases Teaching History in the New Europe John Slater, 1995 Drawing on Council of Europe material and his long experience of teaching and observing history in schools the author attempts a definition of Europe asks whether Europeans have anything in common and what is new about the New Europe In particular he asks why young Europeans should learn history at all If so what kind and how For what and whose purposes And who decides what pupils learn Teaching History in the New Europe was prompted by an influential symposium entitled History Teaching in the New Europe It will be invaluable to all those who are concerned with teaching history as well as having an interest in European history and culture How Teachers in Europe Teach Religion Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Ulrich Riegel, 2009 In 2007 around 3500 teachers in 16 European countries participated in a cross cultural study of existing teaching procedures in religion and theology This text shows the results which present different approaches strategies and ways of thinking when it comes to teaching religion in a multicultural context Vocational Education in Europe Edwin Gilbert Cooley, 1912 Lessons in History Denis Durand de Bousingen, 1999 Teaching the Mother Tongue in a Multilingual Europe Witold Tulasiewicz, Anthony Adams, 2005-06-09 In a time when the increasing cultural diversity and population mobility of the continent calls for good communication skills this fascinating book features a wealth of data and critical opinion on the topic of mother tongue education In the first part of the book the two editors address central cultural political and educational concerns relating to the mother tongue using some of the findings of their European Commission funded research on the changing European classroom The second part presents case study articles by practitioners from nine countries which have significant regional or immigrant mother tongue populations These include Welsh in Wales Catalan and Galician in Spain Turkish and Greek in Germany Arabic and Corsican in France and Belorussian in Poland as well as critical accounts of the main first language situation in England Denmark France Germany Poland post

Soviet Russia and Spain The concluding part of the book looks at language awareness as a possible approach to linguistic diversity It examines the preparation of teachers at all levels as experienced by the editors through their involvement in an international language study group based in Calgary Cambridge Mainz and Bialystock Teaching the Mother Tongue in a Multilingual Europe is packed with original information which will be of use to all teachers and educationalists concerned with language Education in Europe: Policies and Politics José Antonio Ibáñez-Martín, Gonzalo Jover, 2013-03-09 While analysing what it means to be European Ortega y Gasset pointed out that European culture is defined by human s desire to find the most perfect way of being a way that must be both firmly founded in history and clearly projected into the future Ortega s idea had perhaps less currency when what European unity meant still boiled down to an economic community Today however things have changed and after a long complex process we now face a new scenario ambitiously named European Union one whose foundations competencies and aims are no longer simply economic but seek to foster a life in common without losing respect for the national identities of the member States The legend in fact Jack Lang confessed that this statement was invented by him and perhaps is true says that near the end of his life Jean Monnet once answered a journalist s question affirming that if he had to do it all over again he would start with culture rather than with the economy

Europe's Teachers, Europe's Learners , Building Europe Through Education, Building Education Through Europe Raphaëlle Ruppen Coutaz, Simone Paoli, 2024-09-27 This edited volume explores the role of education in the process of European cooperation and integration as it has been conceived and realized in the late 20th century and the early 21st century as well as the mirror of this narrative the effects of the European integration process on education Through this dual analysis the contributors reflect on the concept of Europeanization by showing the complex interplay between Europeanization through education and Europeanization of education Part I offers a critical overview of the actors spaces actions and pedagogies designed to promote the European project and build Europeans Part II examines how work done on the European continental level has impacted the educational sphere and national education systems The case studies cover a wide range of international institutions College of Europe European Schools European Centre for Culture European University Institute international organizations EC EU OEEC OECD Council of Europe UNESCO and transnational actors European Trade Union Committee for Education European Federation of Education Employers providing interdisciplinary insight into how this dialectic contributed to shape Europe as a whole This book will be of interest to graduate and postgraduate students teachers and researchers of international cultural relations Europeanization and education from a transnational perspective The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
