The Of The Body:

The Spectacle of the Body in Late Medieval England Estella Antoaneta Ciobanu, 2012 The volume The Spectacle of the Body in Late Medieval England represents a study on the human body representation in medieval England by approaching the concept of the spectacle as a space of manifestation The author clarifies the ways of understanding the body as a physical and metaphorical reality but also the medieval conceptualization of violence On top of that the author is making an investigation on the violent character of spectacles representation in pursuit of picturing this subject more clearly and more relevant The approach of the volume is dominantly Christian reviewing the representations of the body through outstanding figures of Christianity crucifixion of Jesus Christ body of Virgin Mary

Physiology the Science of the Body Ernest G. Martin, 2020-08-06 Reproduction of the original Physiology the Science of the Body by Ernest G Martin If the Body Politic Could Breathe in the Age of the Refugee Julia Metzger-Traber, 2018-05-15 This book posits that the refugee crisis may actually be a crisis of identity in a rapidly changing world It argues that Western conceptions of the individual Self shape metaphors of political homes and thus the geopolitics of belonging and exclusion Metzger Traber creatively re conceives political belonging by perceiving the interconnection of each Self through its most immediate home the breathing body On an experimental literary journey through her own past and that of Germany she puts political philosophy in conversation with somatic and spiritual insight to expand notions of Self and Home Then she asks What ethical imperatives arise What kinds of homes and homelands would we create if we no longer thought we ended at our skin

Development and Structure of the Body Image S. Fisher, 2014-02-24 First published in 1986 This is volume 2 of Development and Structure of the Body Image Volume 1 presents a thorough review and analysis of the body image literature from 1969 The present volume details in the main research concerned with testing and evaluating a number of major theoretical concepts relating to body image which I have developed The following major topics are considered organization of the body image boundary assignment of meaning to specific body areas general body awareness and distortions in body perception The bibliography for all the work described in the two volumes is contained in this second volume
