Kim, 2018-07-05 How to define a Chinese national identity remains as hotly contested a question among today's Chinese citizens as it has been among foreign observers This volume brings together ten new essays by an interdisciplinary group of leading sinologists and offers a comprehensive framework for understanding the nature of Chinese national identity in past and contemporary settings A Court on Horseback Michael G Chang, 2020-03-23 Between 1751 and 1784 the Qianlong emperor embarked upon six southern tours traveling from Beijing to Jiangnan and back These tours were exercises in political theater that took the Manchu emperor through one of the Qing empire's most prosperous regions This study elucidates the tensions and the constant negotiations characterizing the relationship between the imperial center and Jiangnan which straddled the two key provinces of Jiangsu and Zhejiang Politically economically and culturally Jiangnan was the undisputed center of the Han Chinese world it also remained a bastion of Ming loyalism and anti Manchu sentiment How did the Qing court constitute its authority and legitimate its domination over this pivotal region What were the precise terms and historical dynamics of Qing rule over China proper during the long eighteenth century In the course of addressing such questions this study also explores the political culture within and through which High Qing rule was constituted and contested by a range of actors all of whom operated within socially and historically structured contexts The author argues that the southern tours occupied a central place in the historical formation of Qing rule during a period of momentous change affecting all strata of the eighteenth century polity A Moment's Notice Carol J. Greenhouse, 2018-07-05 Focusing on the problem of time the paradox of time's apparent universality and cultural relativity Carol J Greenhouse develops an original ethnographic account of our present moment the much heralded postmodern condition which is at the same time a reflexive analysis of ethnography itself She argues that time is about agency and accountability and that representations of time are used by institutions of law politics and scholarship to selectively refashion popular ideas of agency into paradigms of institutional legitimacy A Moment's Notice suggests that the problem of time in theory is the corollary of problems of power in practice Greenhouse develops her theory in examinations of three moments of cultural and political crisis the resistance of the Aztecs against Cortes the consolidation of China's First Empire and the recent partisan political contests over Supreme Court nominees in the United States In each of these cases temporal innovation is integral to political improvisation as traditions of sovereignty confront new cultural challenges These cases return the discussion to current issues of inequality postmodernity cultural pluralism and ethnography The Military Revolution and Political Change Brian

Downing, 2020-12-08 To examine the long run origins of democracy and dictatorship Brian Downing focuses on the importance of medieval political configurations and of military modernization in the early modern period He maintains that in late medieval times an array of constitutional arrangements distinguished Western Europe from other parts of the world and predisposed it toward liberal democracy He then looks at how medieval constitutionalism was affected by the military revolution of the early modern era the shift from small decentralized feudal levies to large standing armies Downing won the American Political Science Association s Gabriel Almond Award for the dissertation on which this book was based Before Confucius Edward L. Shaughnessy, 1997-01-01 Examines the original composition of China s oldest books the Classic of Changes the Venerated Documents and the Classic of Poetry and attempts to restore their original meanings
