Orthodox Christian Bioethics Rabee Toumi, 2020-10-07 This book advocates a substantive common ground in global bioethics It starts from an Orthodox Christian anthropology to highlight the relationship between hospitality dignity and vulnerability as the meeting point between strangers regardless of their value system The universal experience of suffering and death is the unifying starting point of that anthropology Therefore in medicine where physicians and patients meet as utter strangers not only as moral strangers hospitality highlights the human dignity and vulnerability of both parties and establishes gratitude compassion and solidarity as the constructive building blocks of a healing practice of medicine and a humane medical system locally and globally

Orthodox Christians and the Rights Revolution in America A. G. Roeber, 2024-01-02 A distinctive and unrivaled examination of North American Eastern Orthodox Christians and their encounter with the rights revolution in a pluralistic American society From the civil rights movement of the 1950s to the culture wars of North America commentators have identified the partisans bent on pursuing different rights claims When religious identity surfaces as a key determinant in how the pursuit of rights occurs both the religious right and liberal believers remain the focus of how each contributes to making rights demands How Orthodox Christians in North America have navigated the rights revolution however remains largely unknown From the disagreements over the rights of the First Peoples of Alaska to arguments about the rights of transgender persons Orthodox Christians have engaged an Anglo American legal and constitutional rights tradition But they see rights claims through the lens of an inherited focus on the dignity of the human person In a pluralistic society and culture Orthodox Christians both converts and those with family roots in Orthodox countries share with non Orthodox fellow citizens the challenge of reconciling conflicting rights claims Those claims do pit religious liberty rights claims against perceived dangers from outside the Orthodox Church But internal disagreements about the rights of clergy and people within the Church accompany the Orthodox Christian engagement with debates over gender sex and marriage as well as expanding political legal and human rights claims Despite their small numbers North American Orthodox remain highly visible and their struggles influential among the more than 280 million Orthodox worldwide Orthodox Christians and the Rights Revolution in America offers an historical analysis of this unfolding story

The Legitimation Crisis of the Orthodox Church in the United States Cezara O. Crisan, 2019-09-13 As immigration and religion remain important topics in contemporary social political and academic debates The Legitimation Crisis of the Orthodox Church in the United States From Assimilation to Incorporation analyzes the assimilation and incorporation of contemporary Eastern European Christian immigrants into American society by using the theory of the legitimation crisis This book illustrates how these immigrants perceive the role and meaning of the Church and the extent to which they embrace the Americanization of this institution Crisan explores the Orthodox Church's willingness to respond to the changes in the composition of its immigrant churchgoers and their needs in a context where the Church must choose between promoting its traditional religious message and supporting the ethnic identity of its congregation

Orthodox Christians and Islam in the Postmodern Age Andrew Sharp, 2012-06-27 This book is the first comprehensive attempt to assess an Orthodox Christian position on Islam It demonstrates how a growing number of ordained and lay leaders have reframed the discussion within the Orthodox Church while participating in dialogue with Muslims

The World's Christians Douglas Jacobsen, 2011-03-21 Written by an award winning author this well organized and comprehensive introduction to global Christianity illuminates the many ways the world's Christians live their faith today Covers the entire globe Africa Asia and Latin America as well as Europe North America and the Pacific Provides impartial in depth descriptions of the world's four major Christian traditions Orthodox Catholic Protestant and Pentecostal Charismatic Utilizes the best available sources to produce an up to date profile of demographic trends in the Christian population Blends history sociology anthropology and theology to create a rich multi layered analysis of the world Christian movement Features clear maps and 4 color illustrations throughout the volume

Just Peace Semegnish Asfaw, Alexios Chehadeh, Marian Gh. Simion, 2012-01-01 Despite their largely pacifist origins Christianity and Christian traditions can claim only limited success in their efforts to conciliate conflict avoid violence and stop war Perhaps it is time say the eminent contributors to this deeply reflective volume to look at Eastern and Oriental traditions to the very different perspectives of Orthodox Christians on issues of war peace and the justice that must undergird peace Writing from Europe and Russia as well as the Middle East and Asia two dozen Orthodox theologians and church people cast the classic dilemmas of war and peace military service just war and religious nationalism into a deeper theological framework Contents include historical characterizations of Orthodox in a variety of settings and nations Greece Oriental Christianity Bulgaria Armenia Western Europe etc dilemmas of nationalism for the churches the invasion of

Iraq globalization fundamentalisms interreligious tensions the ecclesial vocation of peacemaking PART ONE Orthodox Peace Ethics in Eastern and Oriental Christianity PART TWO Orthodox Contribution to a Theology of Just Peace Developing the Principles of Just Peace Semegnish Asfaw is Research Associate in the World Council of Churches program The Decade to Overcome Violence Alexios Chehadeh is Exarchos of the Antiochian Church and the Institute for Theology and Peace Hamburg Germany Marian Gh Simion is Associate Director of the Boston Theological Institute and founder of the Institute for Peace Studies in Eastern Christianity Boston The Concept of Human Rights in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Catharina Rachik, Georges Tamer, 2022-12-05 The second volume of the series Key Concepts in Interreligious Discourses points out the roots of the concept of human rights in Judaism Christianity and Islam It shows how far the universal validity of human rights opposes in some crucial points with religious traditions The volume demonstrates that new perspectives are introduced to the general discussion about human rights when related to religious traditions Especially the interreligious viewpoint proves that a new kind of debate about human rights and its history is necessary The Inhumanity of Right Christos Yannaras, 2022-01-01 Christos Yannaras pioneering critique of the concept of the right of the individual is presented in English for the first time This central aspect of political theory since Hegel s Philosophy of Right summarizes the philosophical and cultural identity of the paradigm of modernity but the philosophical assumptions underlying the concept of right have not hitherto been subject to scrutiny Yannaras shows that the starting point of the concept of right is a phenomenalist naturalism which presupposes an abstract concept of the human subject as a fundamentally undifferentiated natural individual The question is also explored of how the priority accorded to this concept of right is related to the contemporary crisis of the modern politico social paradigm while a new preface from the translator underlines the continued significance of Yannaras proposal for Anglophone readers Against the modern concept of right with its illusion of objectivity The Inhumanity of Right sketches out the basic lines of a political theory that prioritizes new social needs that reflect the relational character of the human person
