Casa Loma Matthew M. Reeve,Michael

Windover,2023-09-01 Leading architect E J Lennox designed Casa Loma for the flamboyant Sir Henry Pellatt and Mary Lady Pellatt as an enormous castellated mansion that overlooked the booming metropolis of Toronto The first scholarly book dedicated to this Canadian landmark Casa Loma situates the famous house on the hill within Toronto's architectural urban and cultural history Casa Loma was not only an outsized home for the self-appointed Lord Toronto but a statement of Canada's association with empire an assertion of the country's British legacy During and after the Pellatts occupation Casa Loma was a major landmark and it has since infiltrated the iconography and collective memory of the metropolis The reception of Casa Loma variously loved and abhorred by Torontonians reflects many of Toronto's major aspirations and anxieties about itself as a modern city Across ten chapters this book charts the history of Casa Loma from the purchase of the estate atop Davenport Ridge in 1903 and its construction from 1906 through to its sale and the dispersal of its contents in 1924 its subsequent life as a hotel and finally its transformation into one of the city's major entertainment venues Casa Loma brings to light a wealth of hitherto unpublished archival images and documentation of the house's visual and material culture weaving together a textured account of the design use and life of this unique building over the course of the twentieth century American Florist, 1906 Sons of Canada Augustus Bridle, Frederick Sproston Challener, 1916 Canadian Gazette and Export Trader, 1909 Toronto Sketches 6 Mike Filey, 2000-09-01 Stories of Old Toronto never lose favour with the city's nostalgia buffs and as long as Mike Filey continues to provide us with his The Way We Were columns no one's appetite will have to go unsatisfied When Mike's Toronto Sunday Sun columns were first brought together in Toronto Sketches demand was so high that it prompted a second collection then a third and a fourth and a fifth Now for 2000 Mike has once again brought together some of the best of his Toronto Sunday Sun columns for Toronto Sketches 6 the latest installment in the wildly popular series This time around Mike takes us to a performance at the Royal Alexandra Theatre by Al Jolson the opening of Sunnybrook Hospital a game between the baseball Leafs and the Havana Sugar Kings with Fidel Castro throwing out the first pitch and many more famous notorious and entertaining episodes in the history of this great city Eaton Hall Kelly Mathews, 2015-05-25 In 1901 Florence McCrea married into one of the most prosperous families in the Dominion of Canada becoming Lady Eaton fourteen years later when her husband John Craig Eaton was knighted Not long after the death of her husband Lady Eaton retired from her home in Toronto to the seventy-two room Norman style chateau she had built on their King City property She named it Eaton Hall The estate fueled the local economy and community supported the Canadian World War II effort and established a firm place in the hearts and minds of the residents of King Township Rediscover an enchanting and bygone age with the life and history of Lady Eaton and her grand Eaton Hall The Uses of Excess in Visual and Material Culture, 1600-2010 Ms Julia Skelly, 2014-08-28 Although the idea of excess has often been used to degrade many of the essays in this collection demonstrate how it has also been used as a strategy for self-fashioning and empowerment particularly by women and queer subjects This volume examines a range of material including ceramics paintings caricatures interior design and theatrical performances in various global contexts Each case study sheds new light on how excess has been perceived and constructed revealing how beliefs about excess have changed over time "The
