American Book Publishing Record ,2003      Reminiscences of a Radical Parson William Tuckwell,1905      Till Freedom Cried Out T. Lindsay Baker,Julie Philips Baker,1997 The 32 reminiscences presented here provide insight into the lives of the enslaved including recollections of being sold away from parents suffering harsh punishment by overseers and living in misery      Riverbank and Seashore in Nineteenth and Twentieth Century British Literature Gillian Mary Hanson,2005-11-17 The waters of river and sea represent a kind of freedom a liberty which as Iris Murdoch writes enables man to exist sanely without fear and to perceive what is real As settings in fiction the riverbank and seashore are rich in potential offering a sense of destiny and suggesting the possibility of self truth and self knowledge In British literature the rural costal setting shadowed by cliffs tugged by the constant movement of the sea becomes the site of revelation and generates the energy that brings characters to a new level of self awareness The river s embankments bridges and tunnels often mark specific stages of revelation and movement in plot Entrapment and isolation contingency and communication are themes that seem born of such settings This book examines the ways in which 21 modern and postmodern writers from Tennyson to Ted Hughes from Jane Austen to Jane Gardam have made use of the physical environment of riverbank and seashore in their work It considers how each author employs the physical settings in the service of plot and character development and how those settings are used to connect with some of the major intellectual concerns of the late19th and 20th centuries Appendices offer significant quotations from the texts under discussion arranged according to the location they describe the rural river the urban river river into sea the rural shore and the urban shore      Strong Women Kari Koepfel,2020-05-12 Celebrate share and take to heart the unsung accomplishments of these unflappable strong women There are so many more incredible women throughout history than you ve been taught You might know some of the most famous and rebellious but this is your chance to get to know 15 equally powerful strong women who quietly broke barriers and made a lasting impact From 10th century novelist Murasaki Shikibu to 19th century self made millionaire Madam C J Walker you ll learn about the early life struggles and successes of the innovators changemakers and ceiling breakers who redefined what strong women were allowed to be Even if they never became household names Strong Women will show you that Ordinary is extraordinary Find hope and inspiration in the stories of women who worked in every field and every part of the world throughout all of history Dig deep These biographies are brief and easy to read but include enough detail to present each woman as a complete personality without shying away from the tough stuff Always remember Uncover why so many of these stories were lost to history and how you can help keep them alive Discover the quiet power of 15 strong women who changed the world as you know it      African Abolitionist T. J. Alexander on the Ohio and Indiana Underground Railroads Paula D. Royster,Gregory M. George,2023-01-09 Countless stories about the Liberty Lines the Underground Railroad have been written Still few ever mention the African abolitionists who established the Liberty Lines and managed the passage of thousands of self emancipating Africans safely to freedom in the early 1800s Thornton J Alexander was an African abolitionist who used the power of his freedom to liberate the physical and intellectual constraints placed on African people in colonial America His inspirational story transcends the sufferings of bondage His lifetime of risks guaranteed the promises of liberty for anyone who reached his land He knew Eliza Harris Uncle Tom s Cabin because she made her escape to freedom from his property in Indiana He allowed Bishop Paul Quinn to establish an AME church behind his family cemetery In 1845 he donated land to construct the first private black college in the U S called Union Literary Institute ULI The first African American U S Senator Hiram Revels and his brother Willis were both educated at ULI as was Rev John G Mitchell a co founder of Wilberforce University No longer hidden in the oppressive shadows of American abolitionists Thornton Alexander s story of resistance rebellion and success has finally been reclaimed from the clutches of invisibility
