Journalisms Karen Fowler-Watt,Stephen Jukes,2019-07-03 In this current period of uncertainty and introspection in the media New Journalisms not only focuses on new challenges facing journalism but also seeks to capture a wide range of new practices that are being employed across a diversity of media This edited collection explores how these new practices can lead to a reimagining of journalism in terms of practice theory and pedagogy bringing together high profile academics emerging researchers and well known journalism practitioners The book s opening chapters assess the challenges of loss of trust and connectivity shifting professional identity and the demise of local journalism A section on new practices evaluates algorithms online participatory news websites and verification Finally the collection explores whether new pedagogies offer potential routes to new journalisms Representing a timely intervention in the debate and providing sustainable impact through its forward looking focus New Journalisms is essential reading for students of journalism and media studies

Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1974 Avoiding the News Benjamin Toff,Ruth Palmer,Rasmus Kleis Nielsen,2023-12-26 Winner 2025 Hazel Gaudet Erskine Best Book Award International Journal of Press Politics Winner 2024 Choice Outstanding Academic Title A small but growing number of people in many countries consistently avoid the news They feel they do not have time for it believe it is not worth the effort find it irrelevant or emotionally draining or do not trust the media among other reasons Why and how do people circumvent news Which groups are more and less reluctant to follow the news In what ways is news avoidance a problem for individuals for the news industry for society and how can it be addressed This groundbreaking book explains why and how so many people consume little or no news despite unprecedented abundance and ease of access Drawing on interviews in Spain the United Kingdom and the United States as well as extensive survey data Avoiding the News examines how people who tune out traditional media get information and explores their folk theories about how news organizations work The authors argue that news avoidance is about not only content but also identity ideologies and infrastructures who people are what they believe and how news does or does not fit into their everyday lives Because news avoidance is most common among disadvantaged groups it threatens to exacerbate existing inequalities by tilting mainstream journalism even further toward privileged audiences Ultimately this book shows persuading news averse audiences of the value of journalism is not simply a matter of adjusting coverage but requires a deeper more empathetic understanding of people s relationships with news across social political and technological boundaries

Brithop Justin A. Williams, 2021 With ongoing debates on Scottish independence immigration Britain s place in the EU multiculturalism national identity and the specter of a past Empire complicating ethnically defined notions of Britishness the Kingdom seems far from United As a cultural force that is often discussed as giving voice to the voiceless and empowering marginalized communities hip hop has become a space in which to explore and debate these issues defining global community while celebrating locality In Brithop author Justin A Williams finds new hope in an often neglected figure the British rapper Through themes of nationalism history subculture politics humor and identity Brithop explores multiple forms of politics in rap discourses from Wales Scotland and England Featuring rappers and groups such as The Streets Goldie Lookin Chain Akala Lowkey Stanley Odd Loki Speech DeBelle Lady Sovereign Shadia Mansour Shay D Stormzy Sleaford Mods Riz MC and Lethal Bizzle Williams investigates how rappers in the UK respond to the postcolonial melancholia of post Empire Britain Brithop shows a rich multifaceted cultural reality reflective of both the postcolonial condition of the UK and the importance of localism within its varying cultures Directors in British and Irish Cinema Robert

Murphy, 2019-07-25 A guide to directors who have worked in the British and Irish film industries between 1895 and 2005 Each of its 980 entries on individuals directors gives a resume of the director s career evaluates their achievements and provides a complete filmography It is useful for those interested in film making in Britain and Ireland George
