Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing

Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population The Sketch ,1900 Using Poetry Across the Curriculum Barbara Chatton,2010-01-13 This comprehensive listing and discussion of poetic works supports the standards of all areas of the curriculum helping librarians and teachers working with kindergarten through middle school students This second edition of Using Poetry Across the Curriculum Learning to Love Language offers a comprehensive list of poetry anthologies poetic picture books and poetic prose works in a wide variety of subject areas While it maintains the original edition s focus on ideas and resource lists for integration of poetry into all areas of the curriculum it is thoroughly revised to cover current issues in education and the wealth of new poetry books available The book is organized by subject areas commonly taught in elementary and middle schools and within these by the national standards in each area Numerous examples of poetry and poetic prose that can be used to help students understand and appreciate aspects of the standard are listed A sampling of units that arise from groups of works writing and performance ideas and links across the curriculum is also included While many teaching ideas and topics provide references to the standards they meet this title is unique in starting with those standards and making links across them Children's Book Corner Judy Bradbury,2006-07-30 Provides teachers librarians and parents with tips techniques activities and twenty five read aloud plans for books that can be used with children in fifth and sixth grade
