U.S. Latino Literature Margarite Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer s The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject

Collision of Worlds Charles R. Colwell, 2008-05 An Episcopal priest maintains that earth becomes the womb of heaven so that God may be born in the manger of human experience This book blesses the earthy and calls the church to cease being so lofty and pious It encourages us to remove the wall that designates a church building as holy and the local bar as secular Serving as a clergyman for over 45 years Charles Colwell has seen first hand how the Christian walk can be a bumpy trail and how those bumps become places of great blessing Doubt becomes merely another facet of faith not its opposite and is to be honored Even our most desperate moments have a way of readying us for a discovery of God's power in our weakness as the gift of God's radical grace transforms us from broken people into empowered pilgrims on the road requiring us to challenge our myopic views of those of other faiths Collision of Worlds separates what is essential rock from what is shifting sand as the author fearlessly addresses dogmatism the interpretation of scripture the gay issue hell and believe it or not the presence of ghosts This book is fresh daring and offers a challenge to believers as well as those who may be sitting on the fence
