Teachers' Work in Aotearoa New Zealand Paul Adams, Kathleen Vossler, Cushla Scrivens, 2005-01-01

Partnership-Based Governance and Standardization of Vocational Teacher Education in Ukraine Thomas

Deißinger, Oksana Melnyk, 2024-04-30 This publication addresses the pressing issues of vocational teacher education VTE focusing on institutional organizational and governance aspects Firstly it summarizes the results of the four year Erasmus capacity building project New Mechanisms of Partnership based Governance and Standardization of Vocational Teacher Education in Ukraine PAGOSTE funded by the European Education and Culture Executive Agency The project s focus has been governance in VTE in Ukraine Secondly it goes beyond the narrow project context and explores challenges as well as good practices in VTE systems of other countries in and outside of Europe Therefore contributions from England New Zealand Australia Italy Germany Austria and Switzerland complement the Ukrainian context and provide readers with a more comprehensive understanding of VTE systems

Historical Perspectives on Teacher Preparation in Aotearoa New Zealand Tanya Fitzgerald, Sally Knipe, 2019-07-11 This book documents and critiques the historical origins and historiography of schooling and teacher preparation in New Zealand The country has a unique educational history as the overview of the history and development of schools for the nation s children both Pakeha European and Maori will highlight

Getting the Teachers We Need Sharon Feiman-Nemser, Miriam Ben-Peretz, 2017-05-24 Teacher education faces challenges that are immediate and demanding Adapting teacher education to the changing needs of educational systems is an imperative This book offers engaging thoughtful and sometimes provocative ways of engaging in the debate around what is and can be in teacher education This book responds to such things as the economic limitations associated with fast track routes to teacher certification while also considering challenges such as the introduction of technology teaching core instructional practices as well as the place and nature of teacher education in preparing teachers for an ever changing world

The Promise and Practice of University Teacher Education Alexandra C. Gunn, Mary F. Hill, David A. G. Berg, Mavis Haigh, 2020-10-01 Centering on the theme of university based teacher education at a time of system change and its connections with broader global political issues this book investigates the changing nature of initial teacher education ITE as it amalgamated into universities in the New Zealand context The New Zealand government like many across the world is seeking improvement in education system performance with a particular interest in meeting the needs of those traditionally disadvantaged through education As a result over the last 20 years most ITE has been relocated into universities and teacher qualifications have changed Not immune to international discourses about the criticality of the teacher workforce to system performance Aotearoa New Zealand provides a bounded yet connected case of ITE development and reform The authors draw from a study of teacher education practice in Aotearoa New Zealand and also look at recent research carried out in other jurisdictions to consider how ITE and the academic category of teacher educator is constructed maintained and practiced within the institution of the university They highlight the promise of university based ITE provision noting areas for development and provide an opportunity to better understand how student teachers within ITE respond to and engage with teacher educators work in the service of their own learning Understanding the Te Whariki Approach Wendy

Lee, Margaret Carr, Brenda Soutar, Linda Mitchell, 2013-01-17 Understanding the Te Whariki Approach is a much needed source of information for those wishing to extend and consolidate their understanding of the Te Whariki approach introducing the reader to an innovative bicultural curriculum developed for early childhood services in New Zealand It will enable the reader to analyse the essential elements of this approach to early childhood and its relationship to quality early years practice Providing students and practitioners with the relevant information about a key pedagogical influence on high quality early years practice in the United Kingdom the book explores all areas of the curriculum emphasising strong curriculum connections to families and the wider community a view of teaching and learning that focuses on responsive and reciprocal relationships with people places and things a view of curriculum content as cross disciplinary and multi modal the aspirations for children to grow up as competent and confident learners and communicators healthy in mind body and spirit secure in their sense of belonging and in the knowledge that they make a valued contribution to society a bicultural framework in which indigenous voices have a central place Written to support the work of all those in the field of early years education and childcare this is a vital text for students early years and childcare practitioners teachers early years professionals children s centre professionals lecturers advisory teachers head teachers and setting managers Catholic Teacher Preparation

Richard Rymarz, Leonardo Franchi, 2019-09-16 This book reflects on the most appropriate methods of teacher preparation for contemporary Catholic schools and on possible contributions to wider teacher preparation from cogitating the history of the Catholic tradition The authors offer exciting and innovative opportunities to inform contemporary practice from international examples International Perspectives on Early Childhood Teacher Education in the 21st Century Wendy

Boyd, Susanne Garvis, 2021-10-22 This book provides significant information regarding the policies and provisions for early childhood teacher education programs in universities in fourteen different countries Early childhood education and care ECEC is expanding rapidly across the globe with unprecedented numbers of children attending EC centres requiring the investment in educators to provide good quality ECEC Yet there is an inconsistent approach to early childhood teacher preparation and the quality of existing programs is not known Each country s contributing author s is are well known in their field for their in depth knowledge of early childhood teacher education programs including content structure and professional experience that works within the scope of policy and registration agencies The chapters address the current situation of staffing shortage or oversupply of early childhood teachers in their country The book informs policy regarding content of early childhood teacher preparation programs and provides evidence of current courses across many under represented countries throughout the world It makes a significant contribution to understanding the environment for early childhood teacher programs
