Island Rivers John R. Wagner, Jerry K. Jacka, 2018-06-19 Anthropologists have written a great deal about the coastal adaptations and seafaring traditions of Pacific Islanders but have had much less to say about the significance of rivers for Pacific island culture livelihood and identity The authors of this collection seek to fill that gap in the ethnographic record by drawing attention to the deep historical attachments of island communities to rivers and the ways in which those attachments are changing in response to various forms of economic development and social change In addition to making a unique contribution to Pacific island ethnography the authors of this volume speak to a global set of issues of immense importance to a world in which water scarcity conflict pollution and the degradation of riparian environments afflict growing numbers of people Several authors take a political ecology approach to their topic but the emphasis here is less on hydro politics than on the cultural meaning of rivers to the communities we describe How has the cultural significance of rivers shifted as a result of colonisation development and nation building How do people whose identities are fundamentally rooted in their relationship to a particular river renegotiate that relationship when the river is dammed to generate hydro power or polluted by mining activities How do blockages in the flow of rivers and underground springs interrupt the intergenerational transmission of local ecological knowledge and hence the ability of local communities to construct collective identities rooted in a sense of place

A Concise History of New Zealand Philippa Mein Smith, 2012 The story of this rugged and dynamic land is beautifully narrated from its origins in Gondwana to the twenty first century

Ngatokimatawhaorua Jeff Evans, 2023-08-10 This is the biography of the mighty ceremonial war canoe Ngatokimatawhaorua that rests on the Treaty Grounds at Waitangi The inspiration for its construction came from Te Puea Herangi In the late 1930s the Waikato leader held a dream to build seven waka taua for the 1940 centennial commemorations at Waitangi By 1937 two waka had been commissioned Carved in Northland under the guidance of Pita Heperi Te Tai Tokerau and Piri Poutapu Waikato Ngatokimatawhaorua was one of them But it was to be many decades before the true power of the waka to inspire a people was realised In 1974 Ngatokimatawhaorua was refurbished by the late Sir Heke nuku mai nga iwi Hec Busby for relaunching during Waitangi Day ceremonies It was then that Te Puea s dream turned into reality By 1990 The Year of the Waka 22 canoes and their 2000 crew gathered at Waitangi Ngatokimatawhaorua and others became symbols of Maori unity and pride and an important part of the renaissance of the traditions of carving and voyaging around Aotearoa and beyond
