Teachers As Curriculum Planners Narratives Of Experience:

Teachers as Curriculum Planners F. Michael Connelly, D. Jean Clandinin, 1988 International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme

Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education JoAnn Phillion, Ming Fang He, F. Michael Connelly, 2005-03-23 Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education provides compelling stories that raise questions advance understandings and promote insight into the challenges and hopes of teaching for diversity and democracy The works contained are compelling for the stories they tell and as such there is value in their presence That the thoughtful reader can glean important lessons with respect to multicultural education and the value of narrative inquiry as academic disciplines is intellectual icing on the cake Francisco Rios University of Wyoming This work is a very exciting important and badly needed piece of scholarship offered by some of the most leading edge professors in the field The diversity and diverse viewpoints it presents are unparalleled in the field of education Cheryl J Craig University of Houston The narratives in this book allow readers to put a human face to an issue related to multicultural education A reflective reader will begin to see himself herself in the narratives of the text Edmundo F Litton Loyola Marymount University The inclusion of chapters that deal with classroom realities elevate the text for education teacher candidates above those existing volumes that tend to deal with multi inter cultural issues in the abstract One of the strengths of this volume is that it will resonate with new and experienced classroom practitioners Jon G Bradley McGill University Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education explores the untapped potential that narrative and experiential approaches have for understanding multicultural issues in education The research featured in the book reflects an exciting new way of thinking about human experience The studies focus on the lives of students teachers parents and communities highlighting experiences seldom discussed in the literature The authors are diverse and their inquiries are far ranging in terms of content ethnic groups studied and geographic locations They also bring their personal experience to the inquiries actively participate in the lives of the people with whom they work care deeply about the concerns of their participants and search for ways to act upon these concerns Most importantly the work emphasizes the understanding of experience and transforming this understanding into social and educational significance Key Features Addresses new ways to explore multicultural issues in education rather than relying on theoretical generalizations the book focuses explicitly on individual and group experiences Emphasizes the transformation of experience into education especially through the study of complex multicultural issues Challenges readers assumptions of multicultural issues by offering numerous narrative accounts and research studies for work with various ethnic groups Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education is designed for use in courses in multicultural education and qualitative research especially in departments of education anthropology and sociology Professional educators researchers and consultants will also find this a valuable introduction to narrative research and a welcome addition to the literature

Narratives on Teaching and Teacher Education A. Mattos, 2009-07-06 This book brings in an international perspective on a much debated area namely teacher education Through narrative research the chapters in this collection provide a wide variety of stories of discovery transformation and hope in teaching and learning to teach Narratives from the Classroom Paul Chamness Miller, 2005 Narratives from the Classroom An Introduction to Teaching introduces the reader to many of the important classroom issues surrounding the field of teaching This book is unique in that it is a collection of personal accounts and ideas written by the teachers and teacher educators who lived those experiences Because this is an introduction to teaching each chapter addresses a different topic ranging from the purpose of schools and teachers issues about policies and programs in the school and various practices found within the classroom walls There is also a section that addresses preparation for the job market and what the first year of teaching is like This book deliberately avoids being prescriptive and encourages the reader to form his or her own conclusions about the presented issues Teachers' Narrative Inquiry as Professional Development Karen E. Johnson, Paula R. Golombek, 2002-07-08 This book explores teachers understanding of the personal and professional experiences that have informed their language teaching The intent of the hardback edition is to bring into our professional conversations teachers ways of knowing that is teachers understanding of the experiences that have informed their language teaching By making teachers ways of knowing public open to review and accessible to others in this profession this text hopes to validate in ways afforded to other forms of scholarly work teachers own understanding of the activity of language teaching Whisperings from the Corridors Susanne Garvis, Rachael Dwyer, 2013-02-11 This book is intended to illuminate the experiences of teachers working in higher education the tensions they face in working in an increasingly complex professional landscape Higher teaching loads increased expectations of research output and changing social and economic structures that shape the way students view their tertiary education have a profound affect on university teachers work The pages of this volume are filled with the stories of teachers in universities that allow the reader to look deeply into the complexities of their work We and the other authors do not pretend that the stories told here are representative of all university teachers that they are in any way generalisable but that others may learn from the knowledge that is shared Teacher's Stories, Teacher's Lives Carola Conle,2006 In this book we demonstrate a mode of teacher education that is practical in a non technical sense and relies on Dewey s notion of curriculum as the reconstruction of experience We present a curriculum that emerged through collaborative self reflection and seeks to reconstruct personal histories of schooling As four former preservice teachers and their instructor we engaged in jointly constructed autobiographical inquiry in order to generate data on our own past and on our current histories of teaching and learning We wanted to illuminate parts of our lives in schools that until now belonged to our normal and taken for granted past We did this in order to enjoy certain degrees of awareness and choice as to which of our living stories to reinforce and which to let run out in our classrooms today International Teacher Education Lily Orland-Barak,Cheryl J. Craig,2015-08-24 The book fills a gaping hole in the teacher education literature Nowhere is there a volume that globally surveys teacher education pedagogies and invites international scholars to describe the most productive ones in their home countries Pre-Service Teacher Education and Induction in Southwest China Ju Huang,2018-09-12 This book is a narrative inquiry that focuses on four participating Chinese teacher candidates cross cultural learning in Canada and stories of induction in Southwest China Through the lens of three dimensional inquiry space and reciprocal learning in teacher education the author explores the influence of cross cultural experiences on the dissonance of pedagogies teacher student relationships socialization and beliefs about teaching and learning that interweave global and national curriculum boundaries The chapters provide insight into how Chinese beginning teachers struggle to voice and to socialize among a cacophony of past practices lived experiences and cross cultural experiences
