Khouri, Hamid Algar, 2023-11-10 This bilingual anthology is the first attempt to present a substantial collection of contemporary Arabic poetry in the English language It acquaints the English speaking reader with the modern development of one of the world's major poetic traditions and affords insight into the contemporary cultural situation of the Arab peoples English translations of Arabic poetry have suffered from aspirations to geographic completeness of representation and excessive concern with the Neo Classicist school The present anthology regards poetic quality as the primary criterion of selection and displays an emphatic interest in the poets of free verse It presents three successive generations the Syro Americans the Egyptian modernist and the poets of free verse movement linked together by a progressive shift from emphasis on form to emphasis on content and form a relatively detached portrayal of the outside world to a concern with the expression of individual experience Numerous contemporary poets make their first appearance in English some of them having written pieces specially for this anthology It is hoped that the bilingual character of the anthology will suit it for use by students of Arabic literature At the same time the book is intended for a wider readership with general poetic and literary interests An important criterion in composing the anthology was the viability of a poem in its English translation as a piece of literature as well as the excellence of its Arabic original if the translators have been successful in applying this criterion the
