The Country House Revealed Dan Cruickshank, 2012-07-31

Spanning the architectural history of the country house from the disarming Elizabethan charm of South Wraxall the classical rigour of Kinross in Scotland the majesty and ingenuity of Hawksmoor's Easton Neston the Palladian sweep of Wentworth Woodhouse with over 300 rooms and frontage of 600 feet the imperial exuberance of Clarendon through to the ebullient vitality of Lutyens Marshcourt the stories of these houses tell the story of our nation All are the buildings of the greatest architectural interest each with a fascinating human story to tell and all remain private homes that are closed to the public But their owners have opened their doors and allowed Dan Cruickshank to roam the corridors and rummage in the cellars as he teases out the story of each house who built them the generations who lived in them and the families who lost them Along the way he has uncovered tales of excess and profligacy tragedy comedy power and ambition And as these intriguing narratives take shape Dan shows how the story of each house is inseparable from the social and economic history of Britain Each one is built as a wave of economic development crests or crumbles Each one's architecture and design is thus expressive of the aims strengths and frailties of those who built them Together they plot the psychological economic and social route map of our country's ruling class in a rich new telling of our island story

Sir Edwin Lutyens Elizabeth Wilhide, 2000 A reissue of a superbly illustrated book tracing Sir Edwin Lutyens's formidable achievements of both grand public buildings and his many beautiful country houses Through his architecture of New Delhi Lutyens had the unofficial status of Britain's architect laureate but it is in his wonderful country houses that his creative genius can most fully be appreciated Elizabeth Wilhide traces the development of the Lutyens style and illustrates his remarkable blend of function and artistry from the imposing granite of Castle Drogo and Lindisfarne to the restful appeal of Munstead Wood which he designed for his long term collaborator and friend Gertrude Jekyll Wilhide also devotes a large section of the book to Lutyens's wonderful interiors With commissioned photographs showing interiors and gardens as well as original designs for furniture this elegant monograph provides a fresh insight into a rich and enduring heritage of design

Country-houses Arthur Stanley George Butler, 1984

Houses & Gardens by Sir Edwin Lutyens, R.A Lawrence Weaver, 1913

Country houses and the British Empire, 1700-1930 Stephanie Barczewski, 2017-02-01 Country houses and the British empire 1700 1930 assesses the economic and cultural links between country houses and the Empire between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries Using sources from over fifty British and Irish archives it enables readers to better understand the impact of the empire upon the British metropolis by showing both the geographical variations and its different cultural manifestations Barczewski offers a rare scholarly analysis of the history of country houses that goes beyond an architectural or biographical study and recognises their importance as the physical embodiments of imperial wealth and reflectors of imperial cultural influences In so doing she restores them to their true place of centrality in British culture over the last three centuries and provides fresh insights into the role of the Empire in the British metropolis Houses and Gardens by Sir Edwin Lutyens, R. A L. Weaver, 1913 A Reassessment of the Country House Architecture of Sir Edwin Lutyens (1889-1913).
