Sister X And The Victims Of Foul Play:

From Sister X and the Victims of Foul Play Carlene Hatcher Polite, 1978 Sister X and the Victims of Foul Play ...
Carlene Hatcher Polite, 1975-01-01 The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential Rape and Representation Lynn A. Higgins, 1993-07-15 Rape does not have to happen The fact that it does and in the United States a rape is reported every six minutes indicates that we live in a rape prone culture where rape or the threat of rape functions as a tool for enforcing sexual difference and hierarchy Rape and Representation explores how cultural forms construct and reenforce social attitudes and behaviors that perpetuate sexual violence The essays proceed from the observation that literature not only reflects but also contributes to what a society believes about itself Fourteen essays by authors in the fields of English American and African American German African Brazilian Classical and French literatures and film present a wide range of texts from different historical periods and cultures Contributors demythologize patriarchal representation in literature and art in order to show how it makes rape seem natural and inevitable Contributors include the editors John J Winkler Patricia Klindiest Joplin Susan Winnett Ellen Rooney Copp lia Kahn Eileen Julien Marta Peixoto Kathryn Gravdal Carla Freccero Nellie V McKay Nancy A Jones and Froma I Zeitlin Their work raises pressing and often difficult questions for feminist criticism Female Students and Cultures of Violence in Cities Julia Hall, 2015-06-12 As the economy constricts it seems living with a chronic sense of fear and anxiety is the new normal for a growing number of urban females Many females are susceptible to victimization by cumulative strands of violence in school their communities families and partnerships Exposure to violence has been shown to contribute to physical and mental health problems a propensity for substance abuse transience and homelessness and unsurprisingly poor school attendance and performance What does a girl do when there is no place to get away from this and even school is a danger zone Why have so many educators turned their attention away from the reality of violence against girls Why is there a tendency to categorize such violence as just another example of the general concept of bullying Critical educators who research the effects of current market logics on the schooling of marginalized youth have yet fully to focus on this issue This volume puts the reality of violence in the lives of urban school girls back on the map investigates answers to the above questions and presents suggestions for change Black Writers Abroad Robert Coles, 2018-10-26 Originally published in 1999 Black Writers Abroad puts forward the theory that African American literature was born partially within the context of a people and its writers who lived for the most part in slavery and bondage prior to the Civil War It is an in depth study of black American writers who left the United States as expatriates The book discusses the people that left where they went why they left and why they did or did not return from the nineteenth century to the twentieth century It seeks to explain the impact exile had upon these authors literary work and careers as well as upon African American literary history The Editor Function Abram Foley, 2021-08-31 Offering the everyday tasks of literary editors as inspired sources of postwar literary history Michel Foucault famously theorized the author function in his 1969 essay What Is an Author proposing that the existence of the author limits textual meaning Abram Foley shows a similar critique at work in the labor of several postwar editors who sought to question and undo the corporate editorial industrial complex Marking an end to the powerful trope of the editor as gatekeeper The Editor Function demonstrates how practices of editing and publishing constitute their own kinds of thought calling on us to rethink what we read and how The Editor Function follows avant garde American literary editors and the publishing practices they developed to compete against the postwar corporate consolidation of the publishing industry Foley studies editing and publishing through archival readings and small press and literary journal publishing lists as unique sites for literary inquiry Pairing histories and analyses of well and lesser known figures and publishing formations from Cid Corman's Origin and Nathaniel Mackey's Hambone to Dalkey Archive Press and Semiotext e Foley offers the first in depth engagement with major publishing initiatives in the postwar United States The Editor Function proposes that from the seemingly mundane tasks of these editors routine editorial correspondence line editing list formation emerge visions of new better worlds and new textual and conceptual spaces for collective action Black Women Novelists and the Nationalist Aesthetic Madhu Dubey, 1994-05-22 Focus on the works of Toni Morrison Gaye Jones and Alice Walker The Cambridge History of African American Literature Maryemma Graham, Jerry Washington Ward, 2011-02-03 A major new history of the literary traditions oral and print of African descended peoples in the United States Black Post-Blackness Margo Natalie Crawford, 2017-05-12 A 2008 cover of The New Yorker featured a much discussed Black Power parody of Michelle and Barack Obama The image put a spotlight on how easy it is to flatten the Black Power movement as we imagine new types of blackness Margo Natalie Crawford argues that we have misread the Black Arts Movement's call for blackness We have failed to see the movement's anticipation of the new black and post black Black Post Blackness compares the black avant garde of the 1960s and 1970s Black Arts Movement with the most innovative spins of twenty first century black aesthetics Crawford zooms in on the 1970s second wave of the Black Arts Movement and shows the connections between this final wave of the Black Arts movement and the early years of twenty first century black aesthetics She uncovers the circle of black post blackness that pivots on the power of anticipation abstraction mixed media the global South satire public interiority and the fantastic Routledge Library Editions: African American Literature Various Authors, 2021-02-25 The volumes in this set originally published between 1995 and 1999 is a collection of works by leading academics on African American Literature The set provides a rigorous examination of the effect of music in the culture of African American society and how it has impacted the literature of African American writers it also looks at the presentation of black women in the writings of both black and white writers throughout the nineteenth and twentieth century Finally the book looks at the experience of black writers living abroad This set will be of particular interest to students and practitioners of literature history and specifically black American history From Harlem to Paris Michel Fabre, 1991 This academic study uses accounts from more than 60 African American writers Countee Cullen James Baldwin Chester Himes et al to explain why they were more readily accepted socially in Paris than in America Fabre The Unfinished Quest of Richard Wright shows that French black American affinity started in pre Civil War New Orleans and not as the title suggests in Harlem when illegitimate mulattos with inheritances from French slave owners sent their children to Paris to be educated The book concludes that acceptance and appreciation of black Americans were based largely of French distaste both for white Americans whom the French found egotistical and for black Africans with whom the French had a bitter mutual colonial history A History of the African American Novel Valerie Babb, 2017-07-31 This History is intended for a broad audience seeking knowledge of how novels interact with and influence their cultural landscape Its interdisciplinary approach will appeal to those interested in novels and film graphic novels novels and popular culture transatlantic blackness and the interfacing of race class gender and aesthetics Modern American Counter Writing A. Robert Lee, 2010-01-21 The dissident voice in US culture might almost be said to have been born with the territory Its span runs from Roger Williams to

Thoreau Anne Bradstreet to Gertrude Stein Ambrose Bierce to the New Journalism The Beats to the recent Bad Subjects cyber crowd This new study analyses three recent literary tranches in the tradition a re envisioning of the whole Beat web or circuit a consortium of postwar outrider voices Hunter Thompson to Frank Chin Joan Didion to Kathy Acker and a latest purview of what all too casually has been designated ethnic writing The aim is to set up and explore these different counter seams of modern American writing those which sit outside or at least awkwardly within agreed literary canons

Womanism, Literature, and the Transformation of the Black Community, 1965-1980 Kalenda C. Eaton, 2010-06-21 This book examines how cultural and ideological reactions to activism in the post Civil Rights Black community were depicted in fiction written by Black women writers 1965 1980 By recognizing and often challenging prevailing cultural paradigms within the post Civil Rights era writers such as Toni Morrison Alice Walker Toni Cade Bambara and Paule Marshall fictionalized the black community in critical ways that called for further examination of progressive activism after the much publicized end of the Civil Rights Movement Through their writings the authors confronted marked shifts within African American literature politics and culture that proved detrimental to the collective wellness of the community at large Encyclopedia of the Black Arts Movement Verner D. Mitchell, Cynthia Davis, 2019-05-15 The Black Arts Movement BAM encompassed a group of artists musicians novelists and playwrights whose work combined innovative approaches to literature film music visual arts and theatre With a heightened consciousness of black agency and autonomy along with the radical politics of the civil rights movement the Black Muslims and the Black Panthers these figures represented a collective effort to defy the status quo of American life and culture Between the late 1950s and the end of the 1970s the movement produced some of America's most original and controversial artists and intellectuals In Encyclopedia of the Black Arts Movement Verner D Mitchell and Cynthia Davis have collected essays on the key figures of the movement including Maya Angelou James Baldwin Amiri Baraka Nikki Giovanni Larry Neal Sun Ra Sonia Sanchez Ntozake Shange and Archie Shepp Additional entries focus on Black Theatre magazine the Negro Ensemble Company lesser known individuals including Kathleen Collins Tom Dent Bill Gunn June Jordan and Barbara Ann Teer and groups such as AfriCOBRA and the New York Umbra Poetry Workshop The Black Arts Movement represented the most prolific expression of African American literature since the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s Featuring essays by contemporary scholars and rare photographs of BAM artists Encyclopedia of the Black Arts Movement is an essential reference for students and scholars of twentieth century American literature and African American cultural studies Signs and Cities Madhu Dubey, 2007-11-01 Signs and Cities is the first book to consider what it means to speak of a postmodern moment in African American literature Dubey argues that for African American studies postmodernity best names a period beginning in the early 1970s marked by acute disenchantment with the promises of urban modernity and of print literacy Dubey shows how black novelists from the last three decades have reconsidered the modern urban legacy and thus articulated a distinctly African American strain of postmodernism She argues that novelists such as Octavia Butler

Samuel Delany Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Ishmael Reed Sapphire and John Edgar Wideman probe the disillusionment of urban modernity through repeated recourse to tropes of the book and scenes of reading and writing Ultimately she demonstrates that these writers view the book with profound ambivalence construing it as an urban medium that cannot recapture the face to face communities assumed by oral and folk forms of expression Jet ,1969-09-11 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Encyclopedia of African-American Literature Wilfred D. Samuels,2015-04-22 Presents a reference on African American literature providing profiles of notable and little known writers and their works literary forms and genres critics and scholars themes and terminology and more Southscapes Thadious M. Davis,2011 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies
