Foundations for Social Change Daniel Faber, Deborah McCarthy Auriffelle, 2005-09-01 This multi disciplinary collection blends broad overviews and case studies as well as different theoretical perspectives in a critique of the relationship between United States philanthropic foundations and movements for social change Scholars and practitioners examine how these foundations support and or thwart popular social movements and address how philanthropic institutions can be more accountable and democratic in a sophisticated provocative and accessible manner Foundations for Social Change brings together the leading voices on philanthropy and social movements into a single collection and its interdisciplinary approach will appeal to scholars students foundation officials non profit advocates and social movement activists American

Philanthropic Foundations David C. Hammack, Steven Rathgeb Smith, 2018-04-16 Essays examining the origins development and achievements of charitable organizations in key US cities and regions Once largely confined to the biggest cities in the mid Atlantic and Great Lakes states philanthropic foundations now play a significant role in nearly every state Wide ranging and incisive the essays in American Philanthropic Foundations Regional Difference and Change examine the origins development and accomplishments of philanthropic foundations in key cities and regions of the United States Each contributor assesses foundation efforts to address social and economic inequalities and to encourage cultural and creative life in their home regions and elsewhere This fascinating and timely study of contemporary America s philanthropic foundations vividly illustrates foundations commonalities and differences as they strive to address pressing public problems
