The Fourminute Ambush:

Ambush at Osirak: A Novel Herbert Crowder, 2012-11-28 Fast paced and authentic Herbert Crowder's dramatic thriller draws on modern events from the heart of the Middle East where the specter of nuclear confrontation lurks just beyond the horizon A gripping novel Hard Corps Marco Martinez, 2008 At the age of 17 Marco Martinez was a thug a gun toting car stealing gang member At the age of 22 he was a hero the recipient of the Navy Cross for extraordinary heroism under fire in the Iraq War This is the story of his incredible transformation and of his experiences on the front lines of the War on Terror Writing with passion and candor Martinez brings us back to his gang days then takes us through the grueling ordeal of Marine boot camp and the even more punishing training at the School of Infantry to show just how warriors are made Then he unfolds a warrior's tale we join his Marine squad as they patrol the most dangerous war zone imaginable the narrow treacherous streets of Baghdad and into a brutal terrorist ambush that calls upon reserves of ferocity and courage none of the Marines could ever be certain they possessed From publisher description The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction A Research Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included My Dying Breath Ben Reed, 2004-08-01 Based on the author's own experiences in Vietnam this novel is dynamic and poignant detailing the rugged journey from free spirited youth to the rewarding fulfillment of honor courage and commitment in the United States Marine Corps Leatherneck magazine Four Minute Warning M J Tolley, The Ambushed Grand Jury Wes McKinley, Caron Balkany, 2004 Infantry, 1968 The Longest Race Ed Ayres, 2013-08-20 It soon becomes clear that this book isn't just about an athletic race It's also about the human race Bloomberg Businessweek Having run in more than six hundred races over the span of fifty five years Ed Ayres is a legendary distance runner and this book is his urgent exploration of the connection between individual endurance and a sustainable society The Longest Race begins in 2001 at the starting line of the JFK 50 Mile the nation's oldest and largest ultramarathon and like other such races it's an epic test of human limits and aspiration. At age sixty, his sights set on breaking the age division record, Ayres embarks on a course over the rocky ridge of the Appalachian Trail along the headwind buffeted towpath of the Potomac River and past momentous Civil War sites such as Harpers Ferry and Antietam. But even as Ayres focuses on an endurance runner's familiar concerns—starting strong and setting the right pace, controlling his breathing, overcoming fatigue, and staying mindful of the course ahead—he finds himself as preoccupied with the future of our planet as with the finish line. A veteran journalist and environmental editor, Ayres reveals how the skills and mindset necessary to complete an ultramarathon are also essential for grappling anew with the imperative to endure, not only as individuals but as a society, and not just for fifty miles but over the real long haul in a unique meditation that ought to be required reading even for people who have never run a step. The Boston Globe. He seamlessly moves between discussing running to exploring larger life issues such as why we run, our impact on the environment, and the effects of the nation's declining physical fitness. Thought provoking. Booklist. To read this book is to run alongside a seasoned athlete, a deep thinker, and a great storyteller. And Ayres doesn't disappoint. He is the best kind of running companion, generously doling out hilarious stories and hard-won insights into performance, conditioning, and the human condition. His lifetime of ultra running and environmental writing drive his exploration of what keeps us running long distances and what it might take to keep the planet from being run into the ground. Nature Conservancy magazine.
