The Humanisation Of Socialism Writings Of The Budapest School:

The Humanization of Socialism Andras Hegedus, Agnes Heller, Maria Markus, Mihaly Vajda, 1977-04 The Humanisation of Socialism András Hegedüs, 1976 The Budapest School J.F. Dorahy, 2019-01-21 The Budapest School Beyond Marxism represents the first systematic and comprehensive study of the post Marxist writings of the Budapest School to be published in English The School itself has long been known in English speaking circles for its neo Marxist critique of the now defunct Soviet system The Budapest School Beyond Marxism enriches this understanding by situating the confrontation with actually existing socialism as but one moment however formative within a much richer and much more theoretically relevant philosophical itinerary From the early critique of alienation through to the contemporary critical theories of modernity The Budapest School Beyond Marxism charts the evolution of the School's thinking with a specific emphasis on the themes of culture critique history and the contingency of modern subjectivity Critical Theories and the Budapest School John Rundell, Jonathan Pickle, 2017-12-06 Critical Theories and the Budapest School brings together new perspectives on the Budapest School in the context of contemporary developments in critical theory Engaging with the work of the prominent group of figures associated with Georg Lukács this book sheds new light on the unique and nuanced critiques of modernity offered by this school informed as its members insights have been by first hand experiences of Nazism Soviet type societies and the liberal democratic West With studies of topics central to contemporary critical theory such as the political and historical consciousness of modernity the importance of bio politics the complexity of the human condition and the relevance of comedy and friendship to developing critical perspectives the authors draw on the works of Agnes Heller Maria Markus György Markus and Ferenc Feher demonstrating their enduring relevance to critical theory today and the ways in which these philosophers can inform new perspectives on culture and politics An innovative reassessment of the Budapest School and the importance of its legacy this book opens a much needed and neglected dialogue with other schools and traditions of critical theorizing that will be of interest to scholars of sociology philosophy and social theory The Humanisation of Socialism András Hegedüs, 1976 Agnes Heller and the Budapest School Joan Nordquist, 2000 Each bibliography includes a comprehensive list of the theorist's works and critical studies of these works in English Each bibliography contains approximately 600 to 900 entries Books journal articles essays within edited books in the manner of Essay and General Literature and dissertations are included References are provided from a wide variety of disciplines and bibliographic sources The primary purpose of each bibliography is to provide access to the widely reprinted primary works in English and the critical literature in a great variety of books and journals The topical bibliographies include the authoritative works on the subject and are arranged in useful categories The lively part of the modern post modern debate is generally taking place in alternative and left journals journals always included in the literature search in the compiling of the bibliographies Agnes Heller John Grumley, 2004-12-20 Agnes Heller is one of the leading thinkers to come out of the tradition of critical theory Her awesome intellectual range and output includes ethics philosophical anthropology political philosophy and a theory of modernity and its culture Hungarian by birth she was one of the best known dissident Marxists in central Europe in the 1960 s and 1970 s Since her forced immigration she has held visiting lectureships all over the world and has been the Hannah Arendt Professor of Philosophy at the New School in New York for the last twenty years This introduction to her thought is ideal for all students of philosophy political theory and sociology Grumley explores Heller s early work elaborating her relation to Lukacs and the evolution of her own version of Marxism He examines the subsequent break with Marxism and the initial development of an alternative radical philosophy Finally he explains and assesses her mature reflective post modernism a perspective that is both sceptical and utopian that upholds a critical humanist perspective just as it critiques contemporary democratic culture Agnes Heller Simon Tormey,2001 This thorough examination of Agnes Heller s political thought covers a range of subjects from Marxian anthropology through aesthetics the philosophy of history ethical socialism postmodernism and the political forms of the modern state Simon Tormey treats Heller s work historically and thematically placing it in a postmodern 21st century context Volume 3: Philosophy of Action Guttorm Fløistad,1983-01-31 Half title International Institute of Philosophy Institut international de philosophie

Developed Socialism In The Soviet Bloc Jim Seroka,2019-03-04 This book traces the evolution of Soviet and East European responses to the multifaceted pressures of a rapidly changing world and looks at the implications of ideological developments in the Soviet bloc for economic reforms general policymaking and political and social change The authors discuss the concept of developed socialism and its essential components as seen in communist societies analyze current policy and likely future policy directions in the Soviet Union Czechoslovakia Hungary Romania Poland and Yugoslavia in light of the concept and assess the impact that ideological trends have had and are likely to have on the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe in general
