From the Bureau to the Boardroom Dan CARRISON, 2009-01-14 When it comes to motivating and inspiring employees there is no better or tougher model than the Federal Bureau of Investigation In its one hundred year fight against the ever changing tactics of organized crime and terrorism the FBI has learned invaluable lessons about powerful leadership and management Like many companies the FBI must succeed on a global playing field with limited resources it must deal with unforeseen challenges and long term strategic threats Former Marine Dan Carrison has had unprecedented access to the inner workings of the FBI Here he offers an insider s look at the Bureau taking readers behind the scenes of some of the FBI s most important missions from infiltrating a world wide drug cartel to closing in on a terrorist cell Managers will learn how to cultivate an All for One One for All corporate culture create a Ten Most Wanted customer list maintain a sense of readiness and think on their feet deploy task force management and more Instructive and exciting From the Bureau to the Boardroom will show all leaders how to win in the marketplace and stay true to core values no matter how tense or challenging the situation Green Syndicalism Jeff Shantz, 2012-10-10 It is widely understood that the burdens of ecological destruction are borne disproportionately by working class and poor communities both through illness and disease caused by pollutants and through the depletion of natural resources from which they make a living Yet consistently the voices of the working class are the most marginalized excluded and silenced when discussing how to address ecological concerns and protect the environment from future destruction Both mainstream environmental groups such as the Sierra Club and Greenpeace and radical environmentalists such as EarthFirst are reluctant to engage with working class and poor communities often viewing blue collar workers as responsible for the destruction these groups are trying to prevent In Green Syndicalism Shantz issues a call to action to the environmental movement and labor activists particularly rank and file workers to join forces in a common struggle to protect the environment from capitalism corporate greed and the extraction of resources He argues for a major transformation to address the jobs versus the environment rhetoric that divides these two groups along lines of race and class Combining practical initiatives and theoretical perspectives Shantz offers an approach that brings together radical ecology and revolutionary unionism in a promising vision of green politics Green syndicalists work as coalitions to increase community based economics and productive decision making that encourages the participation of all stakeholders in the process Drawing in part on his own experiences growing up in a working class family and organizing within radical ecology and labor movements Shantz charts a path that accesses the commonalities between these groups in an effort to take on the forces that destroy the environment exploit people and harm their communities Troy Kennedy Martin Lez Cooke, 2013-07-19 This is the first full length study of the screenwriter Troy Kennedy Martin whose work for film and television includes Z Cars The Italian Job Kelly's Heroes The Sweeney Reilly Ace of Spies and Edge of Darkness With a career spanning six decades Troy Kennedy Martin has seen the rise and fall of the television dramatist making his debut in the era of studio based television drama in the late 1950s prior to the transition to filmed drama for which he argued in a famous manifesto as the television play was gradually replaced by popular series and serials for which Kennedy Martin did some of his best work Drawing on original interviews with Kennedy Martin and his collaborators the book provides a comprehensive analysis of the film and television career of one of Britain's leading screenwriters Also included is a chapter examining Kennedy Martin's significant contribution to innovative and experimental television drama his 1964 Nats Go Home polemic and the six part serial Diary of a Young Man plus his 1986 MacTaggart Lecture which anticipated recent developments in television style and technology Written in an easily accessible style this book will appeal to anyone with an interest in television drama screenwriting and the history of British television over the last fifty years Racism and

Borders Jeff Shantz, 2010 While policies like SB 1070 Arizona's now infamous immigration legislation have raised issues of racial profiling and policing practices there have been few detailed analyses of broader practices of racialization and racism at borders more extensively Some works have focused specifically upon profiling without looking at varied processes of racialization In addition most studies of border controls have examined the US context while few have looked at racism and racialization and borders in multinational contexts as the current work does The work provides analyses of constructions of race and repressive border policies and examines critically larger policy questions in the context of neoliberal governance practices It can serve as a primary or supplementary text for university courses in Criminology Sociology Politics Geography

Cultural Studies and International Affairs Beyond academia it provides a useful resource for civil liberties and human rights groups advocacy movements and community organizations supporting immigrants and refugees as well as those representing members of racialized non migrant communities in diverse contexts The Editor s introduction examines the historical and recent contexts of racial profiling and resistance to profiling especially since 9 11 and the war on terror Chapters contributed by scholars from a diversity of backgrounds perspectives and institutions explore the problem of the Other the power and means of defining territory gender the treatment of indigenous peoples and the active and passive ways in which those in the dominant group step over obliterate abuse and turn a blind eye to all other groups In contrast Graciela Susana Boruszko discusses the concept of hospitality calling upon each of us to make room for the other and asserting that divergent perspectives do not call for reconciliation but to remain standing at ease side by side while we disagree on that issue It is a work that will provide a rich resource for those interested in issues of border controls and migration beyond the din of mainstream media discussions It will be of value to academics and researchers on border and migration issues as well as community advocates dealing with the issues everyday on the front lines Constructive Anarchy Jeff Shantz, 2016-05-23 Constructive Anarchy the result of more than a decade of direct study within a variety of anarchist projects provides the most wide ranging and detailed analysis of current anarchist endeavours The compelling discussions of anarchism and union organising anti poverty work and immigrant and refugee defence represent truly groundbreaking undertakings from a rising scholar of contemporary anarchism Organised to illustrate the development of the diversity of anarchist strategies and tactics over time the book begins with a discussion of alternative media projects before turning attention to anarchist involvement in broader community based movements Case studies include a discussion of anarchists and rank and file workplace organising anarchist anti borders struggles and No One Is Illegal movements in defence of immigrants and refugees since 9 11 and anarchist free schools and community centres Jeff Shantz s analysis demonstrates serious and grounded practices rooted in anarchist organising practices that may draw on previous traditions and practices but also innovate and experiment The varied selection of case studies allows the author to compare groups that are geared primarily towards anarchist and radical subcultures with anarchist involvement in more diverse community based coalitions an approach that is otherwise lacking in the literature on contemporary anarchism FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin , 1961
