The Freedom Of God A Study Of Election And Pulpit

Richard Alfred Muller

The Freedom Of God A Study Of Election And Pulpit:

The Freedom of God James Daane,1973-10-22 The doctrine of election is one of the most difficult in all of Christian theology It is also one of the most prominent doctrines for the election of Israel Christ and the church is a theme that runs through the Scriptures Yet notes James Daane election is rarely preached from the pulpit In The Freedom of God Daane offers an explanation for this curious silence presents a corrective to the scholasticism that has infected Reformed theology and argues that the doctrine of election is in fact preached whenever Christ is faithfully proclaimed Interacting with such major Reformed theologians as Bavinck Hoeksema VanTil and others Daane here offers a clear biblically based truly Reformed understanding of the crucial significance of election in relation to preaching Reformed Reader George Stroup,2002-02-01 This volume demonstrates a central conviction of the Reformed tradition that theology must honor the historic witness of the church as catholic while being faithful to the new tasks of the present day church It offers selections from Reformed theology creeds confessions and church documents of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Mission of Today's Church R. Stanton Norman,2007-03-01 The Mission of Today's Church features twelve essays written by Baptist leaders addressing what it means to be a Christian today how believers best work together and what their future holds

Karl Barth in North America John Peter Lewis,2009-04-01 This study looks at the formation of theology as it emerges out of biography Indeed the biography of the theologian is the key to unlocking the meaning of his or her writings and a valuable tool for a thorough investigation of their work There will be a focus on the biography of Karl Barth and how this relates to his theological writings Attention will then be turned on a group of North American theologians to analyze how Barth's theology has influenced their personal experiences and corresponding theologies The personal experience of the theologian provides the background to the theological judgments she or he makes and therefore provides valuable insight into what she or he has written Experiences in the theologian's life determine how she or he forms and communicates the ideas that the experiences have given rise to Indeed theologians profoundly connect with readers as they write theology as an expression of their experiences of faith Therefore this book contends that there is a necessary connection to be made between the theologian as a person and the theology that emerges out of her or his unique biography Indeed it will be argued that theology is born out of the lived encounters of the theologian that develop into the kind of personal convictions passions concerns questions and a motivation to connect with others that is evident in her or his writing Consequently theology and theologian are inseparable What the Bible Says About God the Ruler Jack Cottrell,2000-10-24 see cover The Grace of God, the Will of Man Clark H. Pinnock,1989 The Grace of God the Will of Man A Case for Arminianism was written by an impressive team of evangelical scholars from many traditions This work carries on the ancient debate about the scope of God's saving purposes and the manner of his effecting salvation in human beings It defends the proposition that God is a dynamic personal Agent who respects the freedom he chose to delegate to his human creatures and relates sensitively to us in the outworking of his plans for the whole of history God is love and expresses his power by working salvation among us under conditions of genuine mutuality The contributors to this volume are Christian scholars who are eager to present this evangelical model as an alternative to deterministic theology They do not claim to have said the last word on the subject but want at least to keep the ball of theological discussion in play Dutch Calvinism in Modern America James D.

Bratt,2002-12-30 In this scholarly yet entertaining book James D Bratt takes a look at the Dutch in America from the late 19th century to the present A comprehensive study of an ethnic subculture the book is in large part a study of the group s religious history as well since as Bratt points out the contours of the Dutch presence in America have been overwhelmingly shaped by the church and its subsidiary organizations Although the book is extensively and scrupulously documented Bratt has infused his scholarship with a considerable amount of anecdote that is by turns poignant and tragic and hilarious In Bratt s analysis of the fitful progress of Americanization that this close knit religious community has undergone we are treated to the sharp insights of a bemused and sometimes disaffected insider Included is a chapter on novelists Arnold Mulder David Cornel DeJong Frederick Manfred and Peter DeVries four sons of the Dutch who fled the subculture only to reflect upon it almost obsessively from the outside Well written scholarly and highly readable Dutch Calvinism In Modern America will have wide appeal among both academic and general readers Homiletic David G. Buttrick,1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics

After Calvin Richard Alfred Muller,2003 In this sequel to Muller s The Unaccommodated Calvin OUP 2000 the author carries his approach forward with the goal of overcoming a series of 19th and 20th century theological frameworks characteristic of much of the scholarship on Reformed orthodoxy or Calvinism after Calvin Evangelicalism and Karl Barth Phillip R. Thorne,1995-01-01 This long standing series provides the guild of religion scholars a venue for publishing aimed primarily at colleagues It includes scholarly monographs revised dissertations Festschriften conference papers and translations of ancient and medieval documents Works cover the sub disciplines of biblical studies history of Christianity history of religion theology and ethics Festschriften for Karl Barth Donald W Dayton James Luther Mays Margaret R Miles and Walter Wink are among the seventy five volumes that have been published Contributors include C K Barrett Francois Bovon Paul S Chung Marie Helene Davies Frederick Herzog Ben F Meyer Pamela Ann Moeller Rudolf Pesch D Z Phillips Rudolf Schnackenburgm Eduard Schweizer John Vissers
