Abstract

The authors provide an up-to-date theoretically based qualitative review of research dealing with the relationship between HRM, employee well-being, and individual/organisational performance (HRM-WB-IOP research). The review is based on a systematic critical analysis of all HRM-WB-IOP studies ($N = 46$) published in 13 core HRM and management journals in the 2000 to 2018 period. The authors first identify different theoretical models of the HRM-WB-IOP relationship, which they then use to map research in the area. The results show that mutual gains conceptualisations play a dominant role in extant HRM-WB-IOP research, at the expense of alternative conflicting outcomes and mutual losses models, which are also shown to receive very limited empirical support across the 46 studies. As part of this mapping exercise, the authors identify important knowledge gaps in the area and conclude by setting out a number of key recommendations for future research to address these gaps.

KEYWORDS

employee well-being, HRM, individual and organisational performance, qualitative review

The references of the 46 studies included in our review can be found in the Appendix.

China Among the Nations of the Pacific Harrison Brown, 2019-08-27 On May 14 1960 the East West Center was officially created by the Congress of the United States As a part of the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of this event a symposium was held on May 19 1980 at the National Academy of Sciences in Washington D C The subject China and the Nations of the Pacific was selected because the theme for the anniversary year of the East West Center had been established as Building a Pacific Community It has been suggested that international mechanisms for coming to grips with such interdependencies in the Pacific region as trade investment food energy and mineral commodities are inadequate In response to such suggestions hearings have been held in both houses of the Congress of the United States on the idea of a Pacific community This symposium was organized as part of that general discussion The contributors hope that the papers presented here will further stimulate thought and debate on the problems of the Pacific region Global Environmental Challenges

James Gustave Speth, 2005 This book will change the way we understand the future of our planet It is both alarming and hopeful James Gustave Speth renowned as a visionary environmentalist leader warns that in spite of all the international negotiations and agreements of the past two decades efforts to protect Earth's environment are not succeeding Still he says the challenges are not insurmountable He offers environmental threats around the world The author explains why current approaches to critical global environmental problems Climate change biodiversity loss deterioration of marine environments deforestation water shortages and others don't work now and won't work in the future He provides a stinging critique of the failure of U.S. leadership and offers intriguing insights into why the U.S. has been able to address domestic environmental threats with some success while largely failing at the international level Setting forth eight specific steps to a sustainable future Speth convincingly argues that dramatically different and far reaching actions by citizens and governments are now urgent If ever a book could be described as essential this is it
