Notes From A Small Room Ruskin Bond, 2017-08-29 It's the simple things in life that keep us from going crazy Ruskin Bond writes in this enchanting collection of essays a celebration of the uncomplicated pleasures of a life well lived In A Good Philosophy we learn of Bond's life philosophy or the lack of it and In Search of the Perfect Window we join him in meditating on the qualities of a good window and its importance to a room Whether contemplating the sound of a tropical downpour on the fragrance of lime trees in the Himalayas or on a year spent with his cat Suzie Ruskin Bond transports us to a quieter more elegant world where time moves at a gentle pace He invites us to revel in the intricacies of life and to poke fun at its absurdities with insight wisdom and wit Handbook of Housekeeping for Small Incomes Florence Stacpoole, 1898

Making Sense David Crystal, 2017-05-04 World renowned linguist David Crystal rids grammar of its undeserved reputation as a dry yet intimidating subject Grammar poses a special challenge because of a centuries old history of educational practice that taught the how but not the why of grammar He confronts these basic yet unaddressed questions to render surprising answers where did grammar come from Why is it needed What is its value How should it be taught and tested And where on earth can glamour lie in all of this The more we understand about where our grammar comes from Crystal persuades us the more sense it will make to us and the more sense we will make
