Ten Notable Women of Colonial Latin America James D. Henderson,Linda R. Henderson,Suzanne M. Litrel,2022-08-08 In the seventeenth century Catalina de Erauso at age sixteen a renegade Basque nun escaped from her convent and traveled to the New World eventually reaching Peru She became an outlaw and a crossdresser with a price on her head Yet she ended her days absolved by both the King of Spain and the Pope the latter of whom granted her permission to dress as a man for the remainder of her life The Nun Ensign passed her final years guarding silver shipments on the Mexico City Veracruz highway The life of the Nun Ensign highlights not just her extraordinary life but also the opportunities seized by women in colonial Latin America This book profiles the Nun Ensign and nine other women of colonial Latin America offering an alternate method for understanding the region and its history The ten figures span different ethnic geographic occupational and class backgrounds Through their stories the reader comes away with an enriched understanding of colonial Latin American history

Genre-Based Strategies to Promote Critical Literacy in Grades 4-8 Danielle E. Hartsfield,Sue C. Kimmel,2019-10-21 Draws on critical and radical change theory to equip both aspiring and practicing library and teacher candidates with practical research based ideas for enacting critical literacy practices in middle grade libraries and classrooms Genre Based Strategies to Promote Critical Literacy in Grades 4 8 provides strategies and lesson plans with additional resources and tools for school librarians and teachers to engage middle grade students in reading children s literature through a critical literacy lens To be critically literate readers and thinkers students must learn to question what they read asking themselves who wrote the text why the text was written and how the text positions its readers and others Teaching students how to read from a critical literacy stance is a timely and relevant practice in a world in which text is available instantly and on nearly any mobile device In many cases preparation programs for school librarians and teachers do not teach candidates how to incorporate critical literacy practices in library and classroom settings This book provides both pre service and in service school librarians and teachers with that professional development and guidance for teaching critical literacy in children s literature courses

A Family Chronicle H. D. Stopschinski,2011-01-11 Written in two parts A Family Chronicle tells of the episodes once forgotten but were brought back to light in the first part The author reconstructs remembrances of his own childhood The second part contains testimonies of his family members who like him had to leave their hometown in 1945 when the Russian steamroller threatened to overrun his town This memoir documents these events so that they may not be forgotten by the next generation The cruelty of war and his terrible
