cultural critics talks back to films that have moved and provoked her from Quentin Tarantino's Pulp Fiction to the work of Spike Lee. Including also her conversations with master filmmakers such as Charles Burnett and Julie Dash. Reel to Real is a must read for anyone who believes that movies are worth arguing about. Theater and Film Robert Knopf, 2008-10-01 This is the first book in more than twenty five years to examine the complex historical cultural and aesthetic relationship between theater and film and the effect that each has had on the other's development. Robert Knopf here assembles essays from performers, directors, writers and critics that illuminate this ongoing inquiry. The book is divided into five parts: historical influence, comparisons and contrasts, writing, directing and acting, with interludes by major artists whose work and words have shaped the development of theater and film. A comprehensive bibliography and filmography support further work in this area. The book contains contributions from Susan Sontag, Stanley Kauffmann, Sarah Bey Cheng, Bertolt Brecht, Ingmar Bergman, Harold Pinter, David Mamet, Julia Taymor, Judi Dench, Sam Waterston, Orson Welles, Antonin Artaud and Milos Forman among others. Brooklyn Fictions James Peacock, 2014-11-20 Vast and diverse Brooklyn is often portrayed in literature as a place of traditional community values and face to face relations distinct from anonymous capital driven Manhattan. Brooklyn Fictions discovers what such representations of the New York borough can teach us about diversity and the individual, the local and the global. Combining analysis of popular texts such as Sister Souljah's The Coldest Winter Ever with more canonical novels such as Jonathan Lethem's The Fortress of Solitude, this study draws on the work of a variety of theorists on community and globalization and uses Brooklyn as a case study for an exploration of the complex relationship between romantic ideals of community and global economic forces. With cities often depicted as sites of conflict and fear, this is a crucial contribution to our understanding of the contemporary urban community and the ethical issues involved in conceptualizing and portraying it in literature. International Index to Film Periodicals, 1998 Light Readings Chris Darke, 2000 Chris Darke assesses whether the last decade of the 20th century was one in which cinema as a medium and collective experience became part of the converging field of multi media and whether we need to consider new possibilities for the moving image. TLA Video & DVD Guide 2004 David Bleiler, 2014-04-08 The TLA Film Video and DVD Guide 2004 is the absolutely indispensable guide to worthwhile cinema.
