Beeman,2013-05-07 In 1768 Philadelphia physician Benjamin Rush stood before the empty throne of King George III overcome with emotion as he gazed at the symbol of America s connection with England Eight years later he became one of the fifty six men to sign the Declaration of Independence severing America forever from its mother country Rush was not alone in his radical decision many of those casting their votes in favor of independence did so with a combination of fear reluctance and even sadness In Our Lives Our Fortunes and Our Sacred Honor acclaimed historian Richard R Beeman examines the grueling twenty two month period between the meeting of the Continental Congress on September 5 1774 and the audacious decision for independence in July of 1776 As late as 1774 American independence was hardly inevitable indeed most Americans found it neither desirable nor likely When delegates from the thirteen colonies gathered in September they were in the words of John Adams a gathering of strangers Yet over the next two years military political and diplomatic events catalyzed a change of unprecedented magnitude the colonists rejection of their British identities in favor of American ones In
