The Forgotten Liberian History Of Indigenous Tribes:

The Forgotten Liberian Teah Wulah,2005 John Freeman grew up in an upper middle class suburb outside of San Francisco In high school John hung out with the in crowd played baseball and excelled in all of his advanced courses After graduating near the top of his class he enrolled at USC John s high school sweetheart enrolled down the road at UCLA They married after college In San Francisco John created a very lucrative consulting firm which helped him become nationally known for his infomercials self help books and corporate seminars He is living the American dream with his gorgeous wife two beautiful daughters a son and a lavish lifestyle However entrepreneurial success fame and a solid family life are not enough John needs much more to stimulate his internal needs Over the years his obsession with power has spiraled into absolute dominion The only way to satisfy his appetite is to lead parallel lives This comes easily because of his high intelligence personable demeanor and disposable income John has land and major networks from Atlanta to Seattle to help quench his desires These desires include doing the unthinkable to young attractive women A rookie detective in Seattle has a theory about the five missing women from the metro Seattle area His superiors are beginning to listen At a club in Atlanta John is enjoying a few drinks His waitress Elle is flattered by all the attention he s giving her Currently she is working towards her doctoral in medicine from a private university in Atlanta Elle thanks God she received a scholarship otherwise she would still be helping her father run the family business in the small town of Olive Oklahoma Back to Africa Teah Wulah,2009 Religions of the World J. Gordon Melton,Martin Baumann,2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world s smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia s six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world s smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world s most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions African American Officers in Liberia Brian Shellum,2018-08-01 The story of seventeen African American officers who trained reorganized and commanded the Liberian Frontier Force to defend Liberia between 1910 and 1942 Liberia: America's Footprint in Africa Jesse N. Mongrue,2011-08-05 The history of Liberia and the United States are closely tied together but few people have taken the necessary steps to understand the complicated relationship between the two countries Liberia Americas Footprint in Africa traces the history of an African nation whose fate is closely tied to an uprising of slaves that began on the island that is now Haiti The violence there caused people in the United States to wonder about the future of slavery and blacks in their own nation In this detailed history written by a Liberian educator youll discover how the American Colonization Society played a critical role in the creation of Liberia how courageous blacks living in the United States persevered in seeking freedom how Liberia is culturally socially and politically connected to the United States Discover the rich history of two nations and why Liberia remains relevant today Enriched with interviews of scholars Liberian community elders and detailed research Liberia Americas Footprint in Africa is a step by step account of an overlooked country The Selective God M. Teah

Wulah,2022-08-14 Writing on the subject of religion in this century with advanced scientific and technological developments religion still influences the world This is an individual search for answers to console myself about what or who God is and expresses personal feelings and limited knowledge at that time thinking that I was pleasing God The book does not define God or religion but rather a personal one because each individual finds their Creator differently As with previous writings my audience is an innocent village child who has no knowledge of the surrounding and what controls the environment The book starts with my early religious training followed by the different religious sects I tried to find God and to be endowed with certain gifts It will be a good thing as you read this book to find that each creature of God whether created or evolved we all have gifts to be selected

State-building Interventions in Post-Conflict Liberia Susanne Mulbah,2017-09-27 Post conflict Liberia has been subjected to extensive international state building at some point hosting the largest and one of the longest UN peacekeeping missions in the world and inflow of aid that exceeds in multiples the GDP In order to understand the international state building efforts in Liberia it is pertinent to reflect them against the extractive and predatory nature of the Liberian republic and the central role natural resources exploitation and plantations have played in accommodating transnational interest in the country s abundant natural resources and fertile land This book focuses on the political economy of Liberian state building and in particular the question of the governance of natural resources By combining a historical perspective and ethnographic knowledge the author examines a number of interrelated questions How was access to the state distributed in Liberian state building How are those to be governed and their representation included in political economic decision making and more particularly in decisions over natural resources governance This book will be of interest to students and scholars of state building international development African political science and political economy New Directions in the Study of African American Recolonization Beverly Tomek,Matthew J. Hetrick,2022-10-18 Beginning in 1816 the American Colonization Society worked to send American blacks to resettle in Africa From inception however its foundational ethos has been debated These debates continued long after the effective end of the ACS during WWI through the Civil Rights movement to today when even historians among the Press s own authors respectfully hold opposing views In this volume Beverly Tomek and Matthew Hetrick gather essays from scholars with different opinions and divergent methodologies offering not only new research to address some of the old questions about American colonization and missionary activities but also new questions to spur further debate Land Tenure Journal 1/15 Food And Agriculture Organization, Food and Agriculture Organization, 2015 This edition of the Land Tenure Journal features a selection of articles from Central and Eastern Europe to Francophone and Anglophone West Africa through East Africa and back to Northern Europe The focus of the topics spans land consolidation approaches in Europe experiences of land colonization and an overview of tenure reforms in Burkina Faso post conflict land policy in Liberia land reform in Malawi and community commons in Norway The topics reflect a wide variety of tenure governance issues that are at the core of the CFS endorsed Voluntary Guidelines on the Responsible Governance of Tenure of Land Fisheries and Forestry in the Context of National Food Security General History of Africa International Scientific Committee for the drafting of a General History of Africa, 1993-12-31 One of UNESCO s most important publishing projects in the last thirty years the General History of Africa marks a major breakthrough in the recognition of Africa s cultural heritage Offering an internal perspective of Africa the eight volume work provides a comprehensive approach to the history of ideas civilizations societies and institutions of African history The volumes also discuss historical relationships among Africans as well as multilateral interactions with other cultures and continents
