The Fortunes Of Wangrin:

The Fortunes of Wangrin' Amadou Hampaté B, 1999 Abiola Irele is a professor in the Department of Black Studies at Ohio State University The Fortunes of Wangrin' Amadou Hampaté B, 1999 A novel on the evils of white colonialism in Africa Set in French ruled Mali the hero is a young teacher who plays the white man's idea of a good Black in order to advance his career

The African Imagination Abiola Irele, 2001 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context An Introduction to the African Prose Narrative Lokangaka Losambe, 2004 This collection of essays introduces students of African literature to the heritage of the African prose narrative starting from its oral base and covering its linguistic and cultural diversity The book brings together essays on both the classics and the relatively new works in all subgenres of the African prose narrative including the traditional epic the novel the short story and the autobiography The chapters are arranged according to the respective thematic paradigms under which the discussed works fall

A New World Order Caryl Phillips, 2009-01-21 The Africa of his ancestry the Caribbean of his birth the Britain of his upbringing and the United States where he now lives are the focal points of award winning writer Caryl Phillips profound inquiry into evolving notions of home identity and belonging in an increasingly international society At once deeply reflective and coolly prescient A New World Order charts the psychological frontiers of our ever changing world Through personal and literary encounters Phillips probes the meaning of cultural dislocation measuring the distinguishing features of our identities geographic racial national religious against the amalgamating effects of globalization In the work of writers such as V S Naipaul James Baldwin and Zadie Smith cultural figures such as Steven Spielberg Linton Kwesi Johnson and Marvin Gaye and in his own experiences Phillips detects the erosion of cultural boundaries and amasses startling and poignant insights on whether there can be an answer anymore to the question Where are you from The result is an illuminating and powerfully relevant account of identity from an exceedingly perceptive citizen of the world

African Agency and European Colonialism Femi James Kolapo, Kwabena O. Akurang-Parry, 2007 This work provides insights into important moments in the European colonization project in Africa and into structural intersections between the active agents of colonialism and the different layers of Africa's socio political structures It reveals the indispensability of the African peoples their pre colonial establishments and knowledge of the colonial encounter The book also clarifies the significant impact that African people's choices chances mistakes and internal politics had in structuring their colonial experience and European dominance Colonized Africans and colonizing Europeans had to negotiate the nature of their relationship the grid nexus and hierarchy of colonial power and authority were constantly under construction deconstruction and reconstruction African Agency and European Colonialism expounds upon these beclouded features of Africa's engagement of colonialism It is appropriate for students scholars political analysts sociologists and other professionals interested in the social and political history of Africa Book jacket The Idea of Development in Africa Corrie Decker, Elisabeth McMahon, 2020-10-29 An engaging history of how the idea of development has shaped Africa's past and present encounters with the West

Amkoullel, the Fula Boy Amadou Hampâté Bâ, 2021-07-06 Born in 1900 in French West Africa Malian writer Amadou Hampâté Bâ was one of the towering figures in the literature of twentieth century Francophone Africa In Amkoullel, the Fula Boy Bâ tells in striking detail the story of his youth which was set against the aftermath of war between the Fula and Toucouleur peoples and the installation of French colonialism A master storyteller Bâ recounts pivotal moments of his life and the lives of his powerful and large family from his first encounter with the white commandant through the torturous imprisonment of his stepfather and to his forced attendance at French school He also charts a larger story of life prior to and at the height of French colonialism interethnic conflicts the clash between colonial schools and Islamic education and the central role indigenous African intermediaries and interpreters played in the functioning of the colonial administration Engrossing and novelistic Amkoullel, the Fula Boy is an unparalleled rendering of an individual and society under transition as they face the upheavals of colonialism

Camel Tracks Debra Boyd-Buggs, Joyce Hope Scott, 2003 In this new volume of critical essays on the Francophone literature of countries in the African Sahel some of the field's most distinguished scholars investigate both the written and oral genres produced in this dynamic region work characterised by its association with the desert Revealing the richness and complexity of little known texts now becoming increasingly important as Africa forms its literary canon this is the first volume of its kind available to researchers teachers and students in the Anglophone world

Muslim Interpreters in Colonial Senegal, 1850-1920 Tamba M'bayo, 2016-07-01 This book investigates the lives and careers of Muslim African interpreters employed by the French colonial administration in Saint Louis Senegal from the 1850s to the early 1920s It focuses on the lower and middle Senegal River valley in northern Senegal where the French concentrated most of their activities in West Africa during the nineteenth century The Muslim interpreters performed multiple roles as mediators military and expeditionary guides emissaries diplomatic hosts and treaty negotiators As cultural and political powerbrokers that straddled the colonial divide they were indispensable for French officials in their relations with African rulers and the local population As such a central concern of this book is the paradoxical and often contradictory roles the interpreters played in mediating between the French and Africans This book argues that the Muslim interpreters exemplified a paradox while serving the French administration they pursued their own interests and defended those of their local communities In doing so the interpreters strove to maintain some degree of autonomy Moreover this book contends that the interpreters occupied a vantage position as mediators to influence the construction of colonial discourse and knowledge because they channeled the flow of information between the French and the African population Thus Muslim interpreters had the capacity to shape power relations between the colonizers and the colonized in Senegal
