The Future Present Marianne H. Micks,1974 The Future Present Marianne H. Micks,1970 A Crossroad book

Fully Conscious, Fully Active Bryan Cones and Stephen Burns,2020-01-27 This collection of essays explores the work of Gabe Huck and its effect on liturgical thought and renewal The House Church Del Birkey,2019-04-15 In this book the author proposes the house church structure as a key to continuing renewal in the church today After a biblical and historical look at the significance of the house church the author looks at a model of ministry appropriate to that structure In light of this model the author develops a theology of renewal through the servant leadership of both women and men personal and corporate giftedness participatory worship and community commitment Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen,2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life s contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort Faithful Performances Steven R. Guthrie,2016-04-15 The metaphor of performance has been applied fruitfully by anthropologists and other social theorists to different aspects of human social existence and furnishes a potentially helpful model in terms of which to think theologically about Christian life After an introductory editorial chapter reflecting on the nature of artistic performance and its relationship to the notions of tradition and identity Part One of this book attends specifically to the phenomenon of dramatic performance and possible theological applications of it Part Two considers various aspects of the performance of Christian identity looking at worship the interpretation of the Bible Christian response to elements in the contemporary media the shape of Christian moral life and ending with a theological reflection on the shape of personal identity correlating it with the theatrical metaphors of character and performing a part in a scripted drama Part Three demonstrates how art forms including some technically non performative ones literature poetry painting may constitute faithful Christian practices in which the tradition is authentically performed producing works which break open its meaning in profound new ways for a constantly shifting context Welcome to the Church Year Vicki K. Black,2004-10 A tour through the dates colors and other traditions of the Church year This third volume in the popular Morehouse series explains why we do what we do and when and it does so in a user friendly thoroughly interesting way Bowing Toward Babylon Craig Watts,2017-03-08 What is being done in worship when national holidays are celebrated the American flag is displayed and honored and songs are sung that extol the nation Are these benign gestures Or could they actually be idolatrous In this insightful and persuasively argued study Craig M Watts contends the inclusion of elements of American nationalism in worship is detrimental to the integrity of Christian worship He maintains that in faithful worship the story of Jesus must be re presented and performed in such a way that the only affections and loyalty that are fostered are those Christians everywhere rightfully share To do otherwise opens the door to idolatry and leaves the church doing what Watts calls bowing toward Babylon He reviews the development of the symbols songs and gestures that celebrate America and how they were introduced into worship Watts concludes that the spirituality of American Christian nationalism does not complement the faith of the church but distorts it hindering global Christian unity and the peaceable witness of the church in a divided world

Preaching as Reminding Jeffrey D. Arthurs, 2017-11-07 We know of the preacher s roles as both teacher and proclaimer but Jeffrey Arthurs adds another assignment the Lord s remembrancer With decades of preaching experience he explains how to stir the memory of Christ followers fanning the flames of faith through vivid language story delivery and ceremony When knowledge fades and conviction cools the church needs to be reminded of the great truths of the faith

Where Two or Three Are Gathered Harmon L. Smith, 2004-12-02 Written for a broadly ecumenical audience Where Two or Three Are Gathered explores what Harmon Smith calls the universe of discourse between the language of Christian worship and the language of morals Following the customary order of the church s liturgy Smith demonstrates how worship is meant to engender personal and social holiness and how for example prayer the eucharist and baptism are inextricably tied to our moral understanding of such searing and conflicted issues as capital punishment pacifism and warfare surrogacy and physician assisted suicide
