The Hinterlands:

Literary and Cultural Representations of the Hinterlands Ewa Kęłowska-Ławniczak, Dominika Ferens, Katarzyna Nowak-McNeice, Marcin Tereszewski, 2023-12-22 This interdisciplinary collection explores the diverse relationships between the frequently ignored and inherently ambiguous hinterlands and their manifestations in literature and culture Moving away from perspectives that emphasize the marginality of hinterlands and present them as devoid of agency and cultural currency this collection assembles a series of original essays using various modes of engagement to reconceptualize hinterlands and highlight their semiotic complexity Apart from providing a reassessment of hinterlands in terms of their geocultural significance this book also explores hinterlands through such concepts as nostalgia heterotopia identity formation habitation and cognitive mapping with reference to a wide geographical field Literary and filmic revisions of familiar hinterlands such as the Australian outback Alberta prairie and Arizona desert are juxtaposed in this volume with representations of such little known European hinterlands as Lower Silesia and Ukraine and the complicated political dimension of First World War internment camps is investigated with regard to Kapuskasing Ontario Rural China and the Sussex Downs are examined here as writers retreats Inner city hinterlands in Haiti India Morocco and urban New Jersey take on new meaning when contrasted with the vast hinterlands of megacities like Johannesburg and Los Angeles The spectrum of diverse approaches to hinterlands helps to reinforce their multilayered and multivocal nature as spaces that defy clear categorization Nightwatch on the Hinterlands K. Eason, 2021-10-19 The Templar Lieutenant Iari discovers a murder with an impossible suspect The Spy officially Gaer is an ambassador from the vakari Unofficially he is also a spy As they both search for truth they discover that the murderous riev one of the battle mecha decommissioned after the end of the last conflict and repurposed for manual labor is just a weapon in the hands of a wielder with wider ambitions than homicide including releasing horrors not seen since the war that make a rampaging riev seem insignificant Author of How Rory Thorne Destroyed the Multiverse Print run 12 000 Cahokia and the Hinterlands Thomas E. Emerson, R. Barry Lewis, 1991 Covering topics as diverse as economic modeling craft specialization settlement patterns agricultural and subsistence systems and the development of social ranking Cahokia and the Hinterlands explores cultural interactions among Cahokians and the inhabitants of other population centers including Orendorf and the Dickson Mounds in Illinois and Aztalan in Wisconsin as well as sites in Minnesota Iowa and at the confluence of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers Proposing sophisticated and innovative models for the growth development and decline of Mississippian culture at Cahokia and elsewhere this volume also provides insight into the rise of chiefdoms and stratified societies and the development of trade throughout the world The Hinterlands, 1994-01-01 The unforgettable voices of three generations of Appalachian mountain folk recounts their family's saga of settling Kentucky from the impenetrable wilderness of 1771 through the 1816 building of roads to the creation of a turnpike over the mountains in 1845 The Road Taken Sung Hee Ru, 2025-09-01 Traces China's transformations with a focus on China's incorporation process in the nineteenth century which help to grasp the historical origins of China's capitalism. As Europe's colonial powers reached China in the nineteenth century they became so strong that China could no longer ignore them. Given that the unprecedented geographical expansion of the European system undermined a China-centered world order and brought unprecedented changes to Chinese society an intriguing question why and how the Chinese empire entered into the capitalist world economy has attracted increasing attention among historians, historical sociologists and world systems researchers. Yet there has been no comprehensive monograph touching on China's incorporation process into the capitalist world economy. To rectify this The Road Taken investigates China's incorporation process. Incorporation studies based on world systems analysis aims to illustrate the long-term integration process of external arenas into the capitalist world economy. Ru traces China's transformations with a focus on how incorporation process unfolded over the course of a century 1780s-1890s which represents a watershed era in the relations between China and the capitalist world.

The Challenge of Modernity

Adelheid von Saldern, 2002. A collection of work in translation by the celebrated influential German historian Adelheid von Saldern. Maritime Networks, Port Efficiency, and Hinterland Connectivity in the Mediterranean. Jean-François Arvis, Vincent Vesin, Robin Carruthers, César Ducruet, 2018-11-29. For millennia the Mediterranean has been one of the most active trading areas supported by a transport network connecting riparian cities and beyond to their hinterland. The Mediterranean has complex trade patterns and routes but with key differences from the past. It is no longer an isolated world economy; it is both a trading area and a transit area linking Europe and North Africa with the rest of the world through the hub and spoke structure of maritime networks. Understanding how trade connectivity works in the Mediterranean and elsewhere is important to policy makers, especially those in developing countries in the Mediterranean concerned with the economic benefits of large investment in infrastructure. Better connectivity is expected to increase trade with distant markets and stimulate activities in the hinterland. This book is a practical exploration of the three interdependent dimensions of trade connectivity: maritime networks, port efficiency and hinterland connectivity. Because of the complexity and richness of maritime and trade patterns in the Mediterranean, the research book combines both a regional focus and globally scalable lessons. This book is intended for a wide readership of policy makers in maritime affairs, trade or industry professionals from the world of finance or development institutions and academics. It combines empirical analysis of microeconomic shipping and port data with three case studies of choice of port focusing on Spain, Egypt and Morocco and five case studies on hinterland development: Barcelona, Malta, Marseilles, Port Said, East Egypt and Tanger, Med Morocco.
