History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire - Edward Gibbon, 2011-09-04

The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire was written by English historian Edward Gibbon and published in six volumes. Volume I was published in 1776 and went through six printings. Volumes II and III were published in 1781, volumes IV, V, and VI in 1788-89. The original volumes were published in quarto sections, a common publishing practice of the time. The work covers the history of the Roman Empire, Europe, and the Catholic Church from 98 to 1590 and discusses the decline of the Roman Empire in the East and West. Because of its relative objectivity and heavy use of primary sources at the time, its methodology became a model for later historians. This led to Gibbon being called the first modern historian of ancient Rome.

first modern historian of ancient Rome Gibbon offers an explanation for the fall of the Roman Empire a task made difficult by a lack of comprehensive written sources though he was not the only historian to attempt the task According to Gibbon the Roman Empire succumbed to barbarian invasions in large part due to the gradual loss of civic virtue among its citizens They had become weak outsourcing their duty to defend their empire to barbarian mercenaries who then became so numerous and ingrained that they were able to take over the Empire Romans he believed were unwilling to live a tougher military lifestyle In addition Gibbon argued that Christianity created a belief that a better life existed after death which fostered an indifference to the present among Roman citizens thus sapping their desire to sacrifice for a larger purpose He also believed that Christianity's comparative pacifism tended to hamper the traditional Roman martial spirit Finally like other Enlightenment thinkers and British citizens of the age steeped in institutional anti Catholicism Gibbon held in contempt the Middle Ages as a priest ridden superstitious Dark Age It was not until his own era the Age of Reason with its emphasis on rational thought it was believed that human history could resume its progress Gibbon saw the Praetorian Guard as the primary catalyst of the empire's initial decay and eventual collapse a seed planted by Augustus when the empire was established His writings cite repeated examples of the Praetorian Guard abusing their power with calamitous results including numerous instances of imperial assassination and incessant demands for increased pay He compared the reigns of Diocletian 284 305 and Charles V 1519 1556 noting superficial similarities Both were plagued by continual war and compelled to excessive taxation to fund wars both chose to abdicate as Emperors at roughly the same age and both chose to lead a quiet life upon their retirement However Gibbon argues that these similarities are only superficial and that the underlying context and character of the two rulers is markedly different

The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Edward Gibbon,1996-08-01 Edward Gibbon's six volume History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire 1776 88 is among the most magnificent and ambitious narratives in European literature Its subject is the fate of one of the world's greatest civilizations over thirteen centuries its rulers wars and society and the events that led to its disastrous collapse Here in volumes one and two Gibbon charts the vast extent and constitution of the Empire from the reign of Augustus to 395 ad And in a controversial critique he examines the early Church with fascinating accounts of the first Christian and last pagan emperors Constantine and Julian For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Gibbon Edward,1901
