Unmasking the State Mike McGovern, 2024-05-31 When the Republic of Guinea gained independence in 1958 one of the first policies of the new state was a village to village eradication of masks and other ritual objects it deemed fetishes The Demystification Program as it was called was so urgent it even preceded the building of a national road system In Unmasking the State Mike McGovern attempts to understand why this program was so important to the emerging state and examines the complex role it had in creating a unified national identity In doing so he tells a dramatic story of cat and mouse where minority groups cling desperately to their important and outlawed customs Primarily focused on the communities in the country's southeastern rainforest region people known as Forestiers the Demystification Program operated via a paradox At the same time it banned rituals from Forestiers day to day lives it appropriated them into a state sponsored program of folklorization McGovern points to an important purpose for this by objectifying this polytheistic group's rituals the state created a viable counterexample against which the Muslim majority could define proper modernity Describing the intertwined relationship between national and local identity making McGovern showcases the coercive power and the unintended consequences involved when states attempt to engineer culture Historical Dictionary of Liberia Elwood D.

Dunn, Amos J. Beyan, Carl Patrick Burrowes, 2000-12-20 Originally formed to harbor freed slaves and Americans returning to Africa Liberia once was a land of hope That was shattered by a long Civil War that shook its very foundation Today's Liberia is glimpsed in this second edition Building on the first edition this updated volume focuses on the personalities from the founders of Liberia to the soldiers who are responsible simultaneously for destruction and the hope of stability Along with these people various social and ethnic groups political parties and labor movements economic entities and natural resources are profiled in this updated work A new chronology of Liberia is included and a selected bibliography suggests further readings for the scholar

The Powerful Presence of the Past Jacqueline Knörr, Wilson Trajano Filho, 2010-10-25 This book conceptualizes integration and conflict as interrelated dimensions of social interaction impacted by specific historical experiences Contributions aim at a better understanding of the social mechanisms affecting processes of integration and conflict at the local national and regional levels Liberia's Political Economy Stephen H. Gobewole, 2016-09-29 Ever since it was founded for freed blacks in the early 1800s Liberia has been a country of extremes whether comparing wealth and poverty the lifestyles of urban elites and rural tribal communities or corrupt national government and familial trust This book uses Liberia's history as the background and ongoing source of the current political and social situations as revealed by Afrobarometer data. The study considers the ethnicity, gender, and residential location of Liberian citizens and their attitudes regarding the country's rule of law, state authority, and democratic accountability, its government, and economic health. After presenting the history and the current data, the author makes recommendations for changing the future of this African nation. If implemented, these changes could have a profound and positive effect on the future of this country, which is rated as the third poorest in the world.

The Annual Messages of the Presidents of Liberia 1848-2010 D. Elwood Dunn, 2011-05-04 Every year since 1848 Liberian presidents have delivered a state of the nation address to the Liberian National Legislature reflecting the various facets of the political, social, economic, and ethno-cultural situation of the country. Liberia, the first and for more than a century the only independent state in Sub-Saharan Africa, was founded in 1822 by an assortment of American non-governmental organizations as an asylum for black Americans. Similar to a comprehensive longitudinal study, this collection of speeches describes the social and economic development of an African country over a time span of more than a century and a half, from 1848 until 2010. As such, it represents the first major research contribution to the history of the political system of one of the first countries of the continent to attain independence. The speeches illuminate the area of conflict between the autochthonous and the black emigrant populations and also documents the relations with the U.S. as founding nation and constitutional role model, especially in the 19th century. The presidents' speeches are a rich source of information for gaining a better understanding of Liberia's past and the country's current challenges and future prospects. With The Annual Messages of the Presidents of Liberia 1848-2010, the speeches scattered in various Liberian and American archives and libraries have now for the first time been collected and reconstructed in one single edition. Biographies of the presidents and a scholarly introduction by the editor supplement the 146 speeches. The edition is a valuable source of information on the history and political situation of Africa during the past 163 years. The editor and publisher, D. Elwood Dunn, teaches political science at Sewanee, The University of the South. From 1974 until 1980 he served in the government of Liberia, becoming a member of the cabinet in 1979. He was editor of the Liberian Studies Journal from 1985 until 1995.
