Susan Berfield

The Hour:

The Hour is Now Richard Chilson, 2014 The Hour of Fate Susan Berfield, 2020-05-05 A riveting narrative of Wall Street buccaneering political intrigue and two of American history's most colossal characters struggling for mastery in an era of social upheaval and rampant inequality. It seemed like no force in the world could slow J.P. Morgan's drive to power. In the summer of 1901 the financier was assembling his next mega deal Northern Securities an enterprise that would affirm his dominance in America's most important industry the railroads. Then a bullet from an anarchist's gun put an end to the business friendly presidency of William McKinley. A new chief executive bounded into office Theodore Roosevelt. He was convinced that as big business got bigger the government had to check the influence of the wealthiest or the country would inch ever closer to collapse. By March 1902 battle lines were drawn the government sued Northern Securities for antitrust violations. But as the case ramped up the coal miners union went on strike and the anthracite pits that fueled Morgan's trains and heated the homes of Roosevelt's citizens went silent. With millions of dollars on the line winter bearing down and revolution in the air it was a crisis that neither man alone could solve. Richly detailed and propulsively told The Hour of Fate is the gripping story of a banker and a president thrown together in the crucible of national emergency even as they fought in court. The outcome of the strike and the case would change the course of our history. Today as the country again asks whether saving democracy means taming capital the lessons of Roosevelt and Morgan's time are more urgent than ever. Winner of the 2021 Theodore Roosevelt Association Book Prize Finalist for the Presidential Leadership Book Award The Hour of Sorrow G. F. Maclear, 2023-11-19 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Hour of Two: a Novel Augusta Maria WOODTHORPE, 1809 The Hour is Come Andrew Nunn, 2021-11-30 The gospel accounts change when we come to the final days of Jesus' life and for the first time we are given precise timings when things happen. It was night the next morning it was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him it was noon it was three o'clock in the afternoon. The Hour is Come enables readers to enter into the experience of Jesus his disciples and all the other players in the Passion narrative by using real time to immerse us in the story. Ideal for daily reading during Lent Holy Week and Easter it offers scripture reflections and prayers that trace the journey to and beyond the cross. It begins on Mothering Sunday the Fourth Sunday of Lent with a reminder that Jesus' journey to the cross began in infancy. The pace is slow at the beginning but during the great Three Days from Maundy Thursday evening until Easter Day the story unfolds hour by hour as it happens. Then the pace slows again as we move through Easter's fifty days to Pentecost. This presentation reveals a God so intimately involved with human life that the ticking clock becomes part of how we know Jesus The Hour of the Fox Kurt Palka, 2018-07-31 From the bestselling author of The Piano Maker comes a stunning profoundly moving story about motherhood grief marriage and friendship. For fans of M.L. Stedman's The Light Between Oceans Margaret Bradley is the most senior associate at a prestigious law firm and she is on track to make partner. It is the 1970s her climb up the career ladder in this male dominated profession has been

An Appeal to Men* Hour,Josephine Elizabeth Butler,1876 Praying the Hours Suzanne Guthrie,2000-01-25 In Praying the Hours Suzanne Guthrie offers us a contemporary way to practice the ancient tradition of hallowing time throughout the day by marking the hours with prayer and thanksgiving With humor and wisdom she draws on her experience as a wife mother Episcopal priest and teacher of children showing us through her own life how these devotions can fold into the times of a hectic day By praying the hours all the activities of our days our eating sleeping working cleaning playing and reading become part of the sanctification of time and place In part one Guthrie focuses on the importance of stability of place in the life of prayer Every time I move she observes I have to learn to pray all over again and she describes how she has learned to make a new home a house of prayer In part two Guthrie takes us through the hours of prayer in the monastic day and explores how praying at fixed hours through the day can draw us closer to God Praying the Hours is one of our series of Cowley Cloister Books smaller format gift edition books designed for meditative and devotional reading
