Jafri, 2024-04-30 In 1871 the British enacted the Criminal Tribes Act in India, branding numerous tribes and caste groups as criminals. In This Land We Call Home, Nusrat F. Jafri traces the roots of her nomadic forebears who belonged to one such criminal tribe, the Bhantus from Rajasthan, through the lens of caste and religious conversions over the last century. This affecting memoir explores religious and multicultural identities and delves into the profound concepts of nation building and belonging. Nusrat's family's conversion to Christianity as a response to Brahmanical gatekeeping highlights their struggle for acceptance. The family found acceptance in the church alongside a sense of community, theology, songs, and carnivals, and quality education for the children in missionary schools. Parallely, we see the family's experiences during Gandhi's return in 1915, the Partition, the two World Wars, the Emergency, and the prime ministers' assassinations. In a way, this is a story like and unlike the stories all of us carry within us: the inherited weight of who we are and where we come from, our tiny little freedoms and our everyday struggles, and mostly the intricate jumble of our collective ancestry. Nusrat pays homages to her foremothers, the first feminists, and her forefathers, the ones who tried hard to fit into a caste society only to be spat out and eventually chose alternative faiths in pursuit of acceptance Soldiering on - Finding My Homes Christine Kriha Kastner,2011-04-27 Some military brats rode camels in Arabia others leaped from parachute training towers but this little army brat rode backwards in the rear jump seat of the family station wagon all the way across America without a seatbelt Christine Kriha Kastner grew up the only way she knew on military bases stateside and around the world By the time she turned in her military I D card when her father retired from the U S Army she had lived in fifteen different houses and attended ten different schools Situation normal for an army brat Living on Okinawa was a memorable overseas assignment So when an opportunity to return to that little island in the Pacific Ocean arose after forty years she couldn't pass it up Kastner returned to the island she remembered from her youth with the 73 year old mother of one of her best friends Together they took a Kubasaki High School reunion trip timed to coincide with the 4th Uchinanchu Festival that brought thousands of Okinawans back to the island from all over the world It was the adventure of their lifetimes just not quite the karaoke sake and pachinko experience they expected NIV, Answering the Call New Testament with Psalms and Proverbs, Paperback Zondervan,2017-12-26 This compact NIV New Testament with Psalms and Proverbs was developed with the Fellowship of Christian Firefighters International FCFI and is ideal for any emergency personnel Includes added color pages of prayers and testimonials from firefighters paramedics and chaplains
