reprinted in this volume in their entirety as originally published Technology and Responsibility P.T. Durbin, 2013-03-09 Since it may seem strange for a new series to begin with volume 3 a word of explanation is in order The series Philosophy and Technology inaugurated in this form with this volume is the official publication of the Society for Philosophy the one requirement is that the scholarship be sound and all contributions to the series are subject to rigorous blind refereeing Technology the other half of the philosophy and technology pairing is also construed broadly Canadian Pentecostals, the Trinity, and Contemporary Worship Music Michael A. Tapper, 2017-05-08 This volume offers a landmark analysis of the trinitarian impulses in contemporary worship music used by the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada PAOC It considers whether the lyrics from the most commonly used PAOC songs are consistent with this Evangelical group's trinitarian statement of faith Colin Gunton's trinitarian theology provides the theological rationale for eight original and qualitative content analyses of these songs Three major areas are considered the doctrine of God human personhood and cosmology Making use of Gunton's notions of relationality particularity and perichoresis along with several key Pentecostal scholars this book serves as a helpful descriptive and prescriptive theological resource for the dynamic practice of a trinitarian faith

Encountering Cruelty: The Fracture of the Human Heart Michael R. Trice, 2011-04-21 Interest in recent years in reconciliation and conflict transformation has witnessed a great deal of attention to building a future through forgiveness and preventative measures in order to impede egregious wrongdoing This effort for a reconciled future is absent reflection on the nature of cruelty Cruelty has always been apparent in massive acts of wrongdoing and yet is repeatedly concealed in our assessment of the acts themselves This book is a theologically honest and deep structure exploration of cruelty in its personal communal and institutional encounters in human life Drawing on Nietzsche's challenge of cruelty to the western tradition the work offers a comprehensive study of how cruelty undermines care trust respect and justice all those elements of human reciprocity that mark our lives as interdependent beings The work concludes with a tightly written Epilogue on interpreting the theological meaning and accessibility of reconciliation today Edward Bond: The Playwright Speaks David Tuaille, 2015-10-22 Over 50 years after his first appearance on the theatre scene Edward Bond remains a hugely significant figure in the history of modern British playwriting His plays are the subject of much debate and frequent misinterpretation with his extensive use of allegory and metaphor to comment on the state of society and humanity in general leading to many academics theatre practitioners and students trying and often failing to make sense of his plays over the years In this unique collection David Tuaille puts these pressing questions and mysteries to Edward Bond himself provoking answers to some of his most elusive dramatic material and covering an extraordinary range of plays and subjects with real clarity With a particular focus on Bond's later plays about which much less has been written this book draws together very many questions and issues within a thematic structure while observing chronology within that Edward Bond The Playwright Speaks is potentially the most comprehensive precise and clear account of the playwright's work and time in the theatre to date distilling years and schools of thought into one single volume Published to mark the 50th anniversary of the first performance of Edward Bond's Saved at the Royal Court Theatre in 1965 Routledge Handbook of Critical International Relations
