Randall,Elizabeth McKim,2008-06-03 Against the background of Socrates insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful matter is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old Creativity In Teaching Mason Ross,AI,2025-03-11 Creativity In Teaching explores the integration of innovative teaching methods to cultivate critical thinking and revolutionize education It addresses how fostering creativity isn t just an aesthetic enhancement but a fundamental requirement The book

highlights the concrete benefits of creativity in education showing how it enhances student engagement and problem solving skills For example project based learning and arts integration are presented as methods to nurture creative learning across disciplines It confronts challenges educators face when implementing creative teaching methods offering practical guidance The book argues that conventional teaching methods may suppress students natural curiosity and inventive thinking advocating for a shift towards valuing both knowledge and creative application It provides actionable strategies tools and frameworks for educators to implement in their classrooms The content progresses from introducing core concepts of creativity to specific methods and strategies then addresses practical challenges and concludes with assessment strategies and resources This book uniquely emphasizes practical strategies and a supportive school culture moving beyond theoretical discussions Through empirical research case studies and expert interviews the author supports the arguments and caters to educators administrators and policymakers It draws connections with psychology business management and the arts

Migration Stories Benjamin Gatling,2025-09-09 Migrants and refugees stories have become an essential part of the public debate around immigration Benjamin Gatling edits interdisciplinary essays that bring together the distinct perspectives of researchers activists and policymakers to emphasize how these often siloed communities can use stories as social science data and advocacy tools Ranging from oral history projects to the asylum process to calls for decolonial justice the contributors analyses illuminate how migrants and refugees personal narratives influence both perceptions and policies Their merger of perspectives provides a nuanced understanding of migration and emphasizes the importance of how storytelling can foster empathy challenge stereotypes and drive social change At the same time the essays center migrants and refugees voices within public debates and in work done to humanize the reality they face Original and multifaceted Migration Stories provides a vital addition to how we study and frame immigration

Water Stories in the Anthropocene Angelo Monaco,2024-10-21 Water Stories in the Anthropocene explores how climate change has emerged as a major theme in our daily lives as it poses a myriad of economic scientific political and cultural challenges in the age of the Anthropocene In all its forms and manifestations climate change is primarily a water crisis Water scarcity droughts floods deluge rising sea levels ice melting wetlands loss and sea pollution are among the main threats posed by climate change wreaking havoc on both human and nonhuman forms of life This book engages with instances of extreme events related to water droughts floods deluges and the impact of climate change on some waterbodies seas and wetlands in contemporary Anglophone novels By taking into account a corpus of novels ranging from the various areas of the Anglophone world and thus shuttling between the Global North and the Global South the book reads these novels as water stories This volume pays attention to the pervasive presence of water in all aspects of our lives thus showing how narratives can offer insightful accounts of the present water crisis Alternating between an econarratological perspective reflections on the Anthropocene and the human nonhuman imbrications within the blue humanities the book contributes significantly to the considerations of the imaginative
