The Gifted Disadvantaged Moshe Smilansky,1979 The Gifted Disadvantaged Moshe Smilansky,David

Nevo,2018-05-08 Originally published in 1979 This study was supported by a grant from the Bernard Van Leer Foundation The Hague Netherlands The Gifted Disadvantaged is the result of a ten year study and presents an innovative program in the education of the more gifted among the socially disadvantaged demonstrating the merit of such a program designed and implemented in Israel Resources in Education ,1994 Conflicting Philosophies of Education in Israel/Palestine Ilan Gur-Ze'ev,2013-06-29 effectiveness and creativity in different contexts In this issue this will be presented in full detail in the articles which refer to different aspects of the Israeli educational context This special issue of Studies in Philosophy and Education concentrates on the intellectual impotence moral devotion cultural willingness and social and technological efforts for the preservation and enhancement of the tyranny of normalizing education over human beings in a specific arena The various studies in this issue with all their differences of orientation and issues under consideration will reconstruct the ways for forcing subjects and communities to commit themselves to destroy the otherness or the human potential of the inner and external Other They reveal this phenomenon as a characteristic of both the victimizers and their 8 victims Normally philosophy of education supports this process and justifies or hides this reality As will be shown in this special issue however at the same time philosophy of education might also become a non productive or even a rebellious element in the culture industry and present a serious challenge to the present order It can address and challenge the perpetual success of normalizing education in all its versions among all rival communities narratives and armies of teachers consumers soldiers and intellectuals This of course does not guarantee that such a critique or resistance will not become another dogmatic or nihilistic blow to the free Spirit or nothing but another version of normalizing education Intra-Jewish Conflict in Israel Sami Shalom Chetrit,2009-10-16 This is the first book in English to examine the Mizrahi Jews Jews from the Muslim world in Israel focussing in particular on social and political movements such as the Black Panthers and SHAS The book analyses the ongoing cultural encounter between Zionism and Israel on one side and Mizrahi Jews on the other It charts the relations and political struggle between Ashkenazi Zionists and the Mizrahim in Israel from post war relocation through to the present day The author examines the Mizrahi political struggle and resistance from early immigration in the 1950s to formative events such as the 1959 Wadi As Salib rebellion in Haifa the 1970s Black Panther movement uprising the Ballot Rebellion of 1977 the evolution and rise of the SHAS political party as a Mizrahi Collective in the 1980s and up to the new radical Mizrahi movements of the 1990s and present day It examines a new Mizrahi discourse which has influenced Israeli culture and academia and the nature of the political system itself in Israel This book will be of great interest to those involved in Middle East Studies and Politics Jewish and Israeli Studies and Race and Ethnic Studies Recognising and Supporting Able Children in Primary Schools Hilary Lee-Corbin,Pam Denicolo,2013-10-28 First Published in 1999 The purpose of this book is to raise awareness among teachers and parents about the factors which influence under achievement in able children in the primary years In the past there has been a dearth of research focused on able children of this age especially in the UK In order to fill this perceived deficit this book is based on a research project which incorporated interviews and observation in context as well as traditional testing procedures In this study therefore the views of parents teachers and children were considered and all were given voice to provide a holistic picture of the situation

Nationality and Ethnicity in an Israeli School Dalya Yafa Markovich, 2019-07-31 Nationality and Ethnicity in an Israeli School A Case Study of Jewish Arab Students explores the intersection of ethnicity nationality and social structure which is experienced through schooling and its effects on the performance of disadvantaged students The book sheds light on the ramifications of the multilayered ethnic class identities and explores the role of nationality in the reproduction of a depoliticized ethnic hierarchy in school and society It offers an ethnographic case study of one Israeli high school that adopted critical pedagogy in order to empower underprivileged students that belonged to second and third generation of immigrant Jews from Arab countries It also analyses the ways in which educational gaps are reproduced through the dominant national culture and identity and discusses the educational consequences of multiethnic school settings The book will appeal to students researchers and academics in the fields of sociology of education education policy peace education Israeli studies and critical pedagogy studies

Residential Group Care in Community Context Zvi Eisikovits, Jerome Beker, 1986 Drawing on their extensive experience a dozen respected scholars examine the state of the art of group care in Israel In addition they highlight major implications of the Israeli experience for child and youth care services worldwide suggesting ideas for the development of more effective patterns of community and residential care in the West Successful in alleviating developmental deficits and maximizing the contributions of the country's most talented young people the acclaimed Israeli approach to group care is thoroughly addressed here The authors analyze the complex interaction between culture and residential group care the importance of the role of the parents and the public policy considerations related to residential care This informative and useful volume will contribute to the enhancement of programs and services for young people everywhere
