

Lessing held that the highest goal, theoretical and practical, of those striving to bring enlightenment to humanity, and philosophy's supreme gift to mankind, is to minimize as far as humanly possible the three principal causes of strife and division among men: religious differences, class differences, and national differences.

The Goal Of Humanity:

PATHS AND GOALS OF THE SPIRITUAL HUMAN BEING RUDOLF STEINER,2015-06-29 Speaking to audiences in Denmark Germany and France Rudolf Steiner discusses a wide range of topics from positive and negative human soul capacities true self knowledge and karma to changes in human consciousness from ancient times to the modern era all in the context of the incarnation of Christ on earth The lectures illustrate the diversity of Steiner s approach when speaking to different audiences Reflecting on the polymath Novalis for example he is urgent about the responsibility of spiritual science to help humanity awaken to the new age A few months later talking of Hegel and deploring the fact that an interest in spiritual matters often fails to be accompanied by an equal interest in logical thought Steiner uses a dispassionate philosophical tone But throughout the lectures he is consistent in his view that spiritual science does not reject conventional science Trained philosophical thinking leads to different conclusions than materialism he says but there is nothing in the field of spiritual science that need be rejected by rigorous scientific thought Although the lectures were given to a variety of audiences ideas recur from different perspectives and in different contexts with strong thematic links binding them together These include the relationship between philosophy and science the nature of clairvoyance Christ s presence in the etheric realm reincarnation and karma the mystery drama The Portal of Initiation Christmas and its symbols and the transformation of consciousness that occurred when Christ incarnated physically on earth In the final lectures Rudolf Steiner speaks inspiringly about the Christmas festival contrasting the feeling of inwardness that people used to experience with the hectic cultural environment of modern cities However this does not lead Steiner to be nostalgic about the past Rather he states we should seek to recreate a mood of inwardness in a new way appropriate to our modern age and consciousness These lectures give us the tools to bring such a contemporary spiritual approach to our lives The Chinese Human Rights Reader Stephen C. Angle,Marina Svensson,2015-03-26 Representative selections from China s twentieth century human rights discourse rendered into fluid and non technical English The documents are arranged chronologically and each is preceded by a brief introduction dealing with the author and the immediate context The book also includes a glossary in which translations of key terms are linked to their Chinese equivalents Our Reason for Being T. F. Leong,2022-08-11 Ecclesiastes is a persuasive speech with a rhetoric so unique that it can be easily misunderstood It speaks powerfully to believers as well as nonbelievers because it addresses the question of the meaning of life in the most satisfying way The heart of this book is an expositional commentary that interprets Ecclesiastes as authoritative Scripture It seeks to recover the rhetoric of the speech in terms of its comprehensive message on the meaning of life as well as its compelling force to get the message across Preceding the expositional commentary is an introduction to Ecclesiastes that presents a new approach to outlining and reading Ecclesiastes as a coherent speech It also presents an overview of the forest the overall rhetorical flow of the speech from beginning to end This is to prevent one from getting lost when immersed in the trees of the expositional commentary

Following the expositional commentary are two topical studies to give Ecclesiastes the breadth and depth of coverage it deserves The first is an interdisciplinary exposition on the meaning of life The second is an interpretive essay to defend exegetically the interpretation of Ecclesiastes as a coherent speech

Pauline Theology as a Way of Life Joshua W. Jipp, 2023-07-25 Paul is known as a theologian and indeed his writings yield rich theological insights But Paul was foremost a missionary and a pastor who wrote to real people and churches In this fresh approach to Pauline theology respected scholar Joshua Jipp brings Paul's pastoral concerns to the fore specifically his concern for human flourishing in his congregations Jipp argues that Paul's writings are best understood as invitations to a particular way of life one that is oriented toward the supreme good of experiencing life in God through participation in Christ For Paul Christ epitomizes the good life and enables others to live it While analyzing Paul's thought through this lens of well being and flourishing Jipp introduces conversation partners as points of comparison and contrast He interacts with ancient philosophy and modern positive psychology both of which also address the good life This important and substantial contribution to Pauline studies covers issues such as transcendence suffering and death relationships pursuit of Christian virtue and moral agency It will be a valuable resource for all students of Paul Now in paperback

The Philosopher Li Zehou Jana S. Rošker, Roger T. Ames, 2025-05-01 Deepens our understanding of this contemporary Chinese thinker's philosophy and its significance Li Zehou 1930-2021 was one of China's most prominent contemporary philosophers transforming Confucian philosophy into a resource for positive change From a critical rereading of the Analects to a formulation of his own aesthetic theory Li reinterpreted the tradition from earliest times down to the present day In this effort he was inspired by Marx and Kant but was neither a Marxist nor a Kantian Nor was he a Confucian He was and remains an original the philosopher Li Zehou In this volume Chinese European and US scholars explore Li's contributions to Chinese philosophy and culture

Human Significance in Theology and the Natural Sciences Christopher L. Fisher,2010-02-03 The medieval worldview that regarded human beings as at the center of God s plans for His universe has long been regarded as obsolete its synthesis of Christian theology and Greek philosophy having collapsed under the weight of Copernicus Galileo and Darwin The popular stereotype is that Science both in the Copernican revolution that dethroned the earth centered view of the cosmos and in subsequent developments in evolutionary theory and general relativity has marginalized and trivialized human existence revealing humanity s place in the cosmos to be accidental peripheral and ultimately meaningless However an investigation into both modern Christian theology and contemporary twenty first century Science reveals just the opposite providing solid evidence in the interdisciplinary dialogue concerning the significance of humanity within the universe In this important study Christopher Fisher analyzes several modern theologians including Wolfhart Pannenberg Karl Rahner and John Zizioulas to reveal how contemporary ecumenical theology is deeply and intrinsically committed to a high view of human cosmic significance as a consequence of Christianity s indelible Trinitarian and incarnational faith Fisher then demonstrates how research in contemporary natural Science confirms this finding in its own way as recent primate intelligence studies artificial intelligence research and even the quest for extra terrestrial intelligence reveal the wonder of human uniqueness A contemporary version of the teleological argument also resurfaces in consideration of cosmic evolutionary perspectives on human existence Even ecological concerns take on a new poignancy with the realization that among material creatures only human beings are capable of addressing the world s situation This interdisciplinary study uncovers the surprising coherence and convergence of Christian Theology and Natural Science on the subject of human existence and significance here at the beginning of the twenty first century and it highlights the very unique role of humanity in global and cosmic history The
