Nicaragua: The Imagining of a Nation Luciano Baracco, 2005. Anthony Giddens and Modern Social Theory Kenneth Tucker, 1998-09-24. Anthony Giddens is widely recognized as one of the most important sociologists of the post-war period. This is the first full-length work to examine Giddens' social theory. It guides the reader through Giddens' early attempt to overcome the duality of structure and agency. He saw this duality as a major failing of social theories of modernity. His attempt to resolve the problem can be regarded as the key to the development of his landmark structuration theory. The book is the most complete and thorough assessment of Giddens' work currently available. It incorporates insights from many different perspectives into his theory of structuration, his work on the formation of cultural identities, and the fate of the nation-state. This far-reaching work also touches on issues such as the transformation of modern intimacy and sexuality and the fate of politics in late modern society.

Spaces of Geographical Thought Paul J. Cloke, Ron Johnston, Ronald John Johnston, 2005-02-16. Examining key ideas like space and place which inform the geographic imagination, this text discusses the core conceptual vocabulary of human geography.

Islam, Ethics, Revolt Donald R. Wehrs, 2008-01-01. Rereading works by Camara Laye, Cheikh Hamidou Kane, Rachid Boudjedra, Yambo Ouologuem, Ahmadou Kourouma, Mariama B., and Assia Djebar, this study explores the struggle to craft decolonized Islamic identities within sub-Saharan and North African societies. Linking the politics of these narratives to an Islamic piety rooted in ethical revolt against egotism and idolatry, the study considers the agency of non-Western values in postcolonial literature and the relationship between novelistic and prophetic discursive authority.

A Social Theory of the Nation-State Daniel Chernilo, 2008-03-25. A Social Theory of the Nation-State construes a novel and original social theory of the nation-state. It rejects nationalistic ways of thinking that take the nation-state for granted as much as globalist orthodoxy that speaks of its current and definitive decline.
