The National Trust Book of the English House Clive Aslet,1985      The National Trust Book of the English House Interior Geoffrey W. Beard,1990 DO IT YOURSELF HOME IMPROVEMENT      Houses of the National Trust Lydia Greeves,2021-04-29 This captivating book fully revised and updated and featuring more NT houses than ever before is a guide to some of the greatest architectural treasures of Britain encompassing both interior and exterior design This new edition is fully revised and updated and includes entries for new properties including Acorn Bank Claife Viewing Station Cushendun Cwmdu Fen Cottage The Firs birthplace of Edward Elgar Hawker s Hut Lizard Wireless Station Totternhoe Knolls and Trelissick The houses covered include spectacular mansions such as Petworth House and Waddesdon Manor and more lowly dwellings such as the Birmingham Back to Backs and estate villages like Blaise Hamlet near Bristol In addition to houses the book also covers fascinating buildings as diverse as churches windmills dovecotes castles follies barns and even pubs The book also acts as an overview of the country s architectural history with every period covered from the medieval stronghold of Bodiam Castle to the clean lined Modernism of The Homewood Teeming with stories of the people who lived and worked in these buildings wealthy collectors Charles Wade at Snowhill captains of industry William Armstrong at Cragside prime ministers Winston Churchill at Chartwell and pop stars John Lennon at Mendips Written in evocative imaginative prose and illustrated with glorious images from the National Trust s photographic library this book is an essential guide to the built heritage of England Wales and Northern Ireland      The English House James Chambers,1985 Ge illustreerde geschiedenis van de bouwstijlen van Engelse woonhuizen van de Oudheid tot heden      The National Trust Book of the English House Interior Geoffrey Beard,1991      British Sources of Information P. Jackson,2003-09-02 This comprehensive and versatile reference source will be a most important tool for anyone wishing to seek out information on virtually any aspect of British affairs life and culture The resources of a detailed bibliography directory and journals listing are combined in this single volume forming a unique guide to a multitude of diverse topics British politics government society literature thought arts economics history and geography Academic subjects as taught in British colleges and universities are covered with extensive reading lists of books and journals and sources of information for each discipline making this an invaluable manual      The Heritage Industry Robert Hewison,2023-02-03 First published in 1987 The Heritage Industry sets out to protect the present and the future of life in Britain from their most dangerous enemy a creeping takeover by the past The author sets today s obsession with yesterday in the context of a climate of social and political decline The economic uncertainties and cultural convulsions of post war life have made the past seem a pleasanter and safer place But how true is that image of the past and whose past is it anyway Hewison questions the way institutions like the National Trust are helping to create a past that never was While the real economy crumbles a new force is taking over the Heritage Industry a movement dedicated to turning the British Isles into one vast open air museum This book will be of interest to students of history art and cultural studies     The English Country House Garden George Plumptre,2018-10-02 This book will inspire and delight the stories of these gardens so compellingly captured by George Plumptre make the reader stop and tarry awhile marvelling at the energy the vision and the passion of the people who created gardens such as Hidcote Sissinghurst and Great Dixter The English Garden A feast of horticulture and Englishness House here is a space to wander and relax to share secrets and above all to enjoy afternoon tea But even the most peaceful of gardens also take passion and hard work to create This new book takes a fresh look at the English country house garden starting with the owners and the stories behind the making of the gardens Glorious photographs capture the gardens at their finest moments through the seasons and a sparkling and erudite text presents twenty five gardens some grand some personal some celebrated some never before photographed to explore why this garden style has been so very enduring and influential From the Victorian grandeur of Tyntesfield and Cragside to the Arts from Scampston in the same family since the 17th century to new gardens by Dan Pearson and Tom Stuart Smith and with favourites such as Hidcote and Great Dixter alongside new discoveries this book will be a delicious treat for garden lovers     Global Goods and the Country House Jon Stobart ,2023-11-20 Global goods were central to the material culture of eighteenth century country houses Across Europe mahogany furniture Chinese wallpapers and Indian textiles formed the backdrop to genteel practices of drinking sweetened coffee tea and chocolate from Chinese porcelain They tied these houses and their wealthy owners into global systems of supply and the processes of colonialism and empire Global Goods and the Country House builds on these narratives and then challenges them by decentering our perspective It offers a comparative framework that explores the definition ownership and meaning of global goods outside the usual context of European imperial powers What were global goods and what did they mean for wealthy landowners in places at the periphery of Europe Sweden and Wallachia in the British colonies of North America and the Caribbean or in the extra colonial context Japan or Rajasthan By addressing these questions this volume offers fresh insights into the multi directional flow of goods and cultures that enmeshed the eighteenth century world And by placing these goods in their specific material context from the English country house to the princely palaces of Rajasthan we gain a better understanding of their use and meaning and of their role in linking the global and the local     Stories from Home Margaret Ponsonby,2016-04-01 Most homes in the past were not elite wealthy interiors complete with high fashion furnishings designed by well known architects and designers as many domestic histories often seem to have assumed As this book makes clear there were in fact an enormous variety of house interiors in England during the period 1750 1850 reflecting the location status and gender of particular householders as well as their changing attitudes tastes and aspirations By focusing on non metropolitan homes which represented the majority of households in England this study highlights the need for historians to look beyond prevailing attitudes that often reduce interiors to generic descriptions based on high fashions of the decorative arts Instead it shows how numerous social and cultural influences affected the manner in which homes were furnished and decorated Issues such as the availability of goods gender regional taste income the second hand market changing notions of privacy and household hierarchies and print culture could all have a significant impact on domestic furnishing The study ends with a discussion of how domestic interiors of historic properties have been presented and displayed in modern times highlighting how competing notions of the past can cloud as well as illuminate the issue Combining cultural history and qualitative analysis of evidence this book presents a new way of looking at ordinary and provincial homes that enriches our understanding of English domestic life of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries
