Environmental Disaster in the Gulf South Cindy Ermus, 2018-01-09 Hurricanes floods oil spills disease and disappearing wetlands are some of the many environmental disasters that impact the Gulf South The contributors to Environmental Disaster in the Gulf South explore the threat frequency and management of this region s disasters from the mid nineteenth century to the present Scholars from the fields of history sociology and anthropology examine the underlying causes of vulnerability to natural hazards in the coastal states while also suggesting ways to increase resilience Greg O Brien considers the New Orleans flood of 1849 Andy Horowitz the Galveston storm of 1900 and Christopher M Church the 1928 hurricane in Florida and the Caribbean Urmi Engineer Willoughby delves into the turn of the century yellow fever outbreaks in New Orleans and local attempts to eradicate them while Abraham H Gibson and Cindy Ermus discuss the human introduction of invasive species and their long term impact on the region s ecosystem Roberto E

Barrios looks at political ecological susceptibility in New Orleans's Lower Ninth Ward and Kevin Fox Gotham treats storm and flood defense infrastructures. In his afterword Ted Steinberg ponders what the future holds when the capitalist state supports an unwinnable battle between land developers and nature. These case studies offer new ways of understanding humans' interactions with the unique and at times unforgiving environment of the Gulf South. These lessons are particularly important as we cope with the effects of climate change and seek to build resilience and reduce vulnerability through enhanced awareness, adequate preparation, and efficient planning.

Thinking Continental Susan Naramore Maher, Tom Lynch, Drucilla Wall, O. Alan Weltzien, 2017-11. In response to the growing scale and complexity of environmental threats, this volume collects articles, essays, personal narratives, and poems by more than forty authors in conversation about thinking continental, connecting local and personal landscapes to universal systems and processes to articulate the concept of a global or planetary citizenship. Reckoning with the larger matrix of biome, region, continent, hemisphere, ocean, and planet has become necessary as environmental challenges require the insights not only of scientists but also of poets, humanists, and social scientists. Thinking Continental braids together abstract approaches with strands of more personal narrative and poetry, showing how our imaginations can encompass the planetary while also being true to our own concrete life experiences in the here and now.

Turned Inside Out: Black, White, and Irish in the South Bryan Giemza, 2012-03-01. As a place where Black and Green were in perpetual contact, the Atlantic South furnishes an ideal case study in how these peoples moved with, against, and around one another. This article appears in the Spring 2012 issue of Southern Cultures. The full issue is also available as an ebook. Southern Cultures is published quarterly (spring, summer, fall, winter) by the University of North Carolina Press. The journal is sponsored by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's Center for the Study of the American South.

Southern Cultures Harry L. Watson, Jocelyn Neal, 2012-03-01. In the Spring 2012 issue of Southern Cultures: Blood rains. Snow falls. Bourbon makes the man. Irish Americans redefine black and white. Camp Wah Kon Dah glows in the embers of old memories. The great teacher Arthur Raper opens minds, hearts, and doors. And the creative spaces of geniuses await the next act. Table of Contents: Front Porch by Harry L. Watson. What happens to frontier manhood when blacks, women, and gays drink bourbon too, and white fraternity boys get stuck with Smirnoff Ice from time to time. Every Ounce a Man's Whiskey: Bourbon in the White Masculine South by Sean S. McKeithan. The hot bite of the Bourbon sensuously connects the body of the drinker to nation, region, and locale, enjoining his experience with those of imagined historical bodies soaking up space and place in the slow burn of what appears an endless southern summertime. Native Ground Photographs by Rob McDonald. If convention has it right, these are writers who bear something close to a genetic predisposition to produce a literature suffused with place. Turned Inside Out: Black, White, and Irish in the South by Bryan Giemza.
