The Nature of Cultures Heiner Mühlmann, 1996-05-24 How do stress behaviour cooperation and the cultural evaluation of rules create cultural characteristics such as the two thousand year old system of decorum and the principle of the sublime Mühlmann describes how maximal stress cooperation MSC linked to the dynamics of warfare generates the cultural phenomenon of rule adjustment decorum rule adjustment being a discovery made while experimenting on Artificial Life Using molecular and culture genetic as well as genetical algorithm methods he proposes an evolutionary theory for Western culture

The Terrible Children of Modernity Peter Sloterdijk, 2025-06-10 Peter Sloterdijk is among the most acclaimed and widely read philosophers of the past half century Called Germany's most controversial thinker by the New Yorker he has challenged and provoked readers worldwide with extraordinarily ambitious and wide ranging works of philosophical and cultural critique In The Terrible Children of Modernity Sloterdijk offers a magisterial and profound investigation into the vicissitudes of historical change and the nature of modernity For Sloterdijk modernity is defined by its need to break with the past Moderns are perpetual rebels who seek to sever the ties of tradition and forms of inheritance that bind generations and eras together With deep philosophical historical and literary range he traces this antigenealogical experiment from the French Revolution onward from Madame de Pompadour and Napoleon through Nietzsche Marx Wagner the Dadaists and Deleuze Acutely aware of the destructive potential of cultural discontinuities Sloterdijk is no less critical of the fathers who condemn change than the terrible children who seek a drastic rupture with their predecessors Equally concerned with the grand sweep of history and our current predicaments he instead calls for new ways to live together in the intersubjectivity of the human condition Incisive and daring breathtaking in its scope this account of youthful rebellion against tradition asks us to reimagine the ethics of genealogy

Franz Kafka in Context Carolin Duttlinger, 2018 Accessible essays place Kafka in historical political and cultural context providing new and often unexpected perspectives on his works

The Cambridge Handbook of Sociocultural Psychology Jaan Valsiner, Alberto Rosa, 2007-06-04 This book first published in 2007 is an international overview of the state of our knowledge in sociocultural psychology as a discipline located at the crossroads between the natural and social sciences and the humanities Since the 1980s the field of psychology has encountered the growth of a new discipline cultural psychology that has built new connections between psychology sociology anthropology history and semiotics The handbook integrates contributions of sociocultural specialists from fifteen countries all tied together by the unifying focus on the role of sign systems in human relations with the environment It emphasizes theoretical and methodological discussions on the cultural nature of human psychological phenomena moving on to show how meaning is a natural feature of action and how it eventually produces conventional symbols for communication Such symbols shape individual experiences and create the conditions for consciousness and the self to emerge turn social norms into ethics and set history into motion

The Human Experience Elizabeth DePoy, 2007 The Human Experience examines analyzes and applies theories of humans environments and human environment interaction to professional thinking and action The authors highlight tacit values and assumptions that underlie theory generation and application to professional practice and challenge the reader to answer two questions how do we know and what do we do with our knowledge Significant critical emphasis is devoted to diversity of humans and environments and the value perimeter in which professionals think and act Arts of the Political Nigel Thrift,Ash Amin,2013-03-22 In the West the Left understood as a loose conglomeration of interests centered around the goal of a fairer and more equal society still struggles to make its voice heard and its influence felt even amid an overwhelming global recession In Arts of the Political New Openings for the Left Ash Amin and Nigel Thrift argue that only by broadening the domain of what is considered political and what can be made into politics will the Left be able to respond forcefully to injustice and inequality In particular the Left requires a more imaginative and experimental approach to the politics of creating a better society The authors propose three political arts that they consider crucial to transforming the Left boosting invention leveraging organization and mobilizing affect They maintain that successful Left political movements tend to surpass traditional notions of politics and open up political agency to these kinds of considerations In other words rather than providing another blueprint for the future Amin and Thrift concentrate their attention on a more modest examination of the conduct of politics itself and the ways that it can be made more effective Marketing Metaphoria

Gerald Zaltman,Lindsay H. Zaltman,2008-05-06 Why do advertising campaigns and new products often fail Why do consumers feel that companies don t understand their needs Because marketers themselves don t think deeply about consumers innermost thoughts and feelings Marketing Metaphoria is a groundbreaking book that reveals how to overcome this depth deficit and find the universal drivers of human behavior so vital to a firm s success Marketing Metaphoria reveals the powerful unconscious viewing lenses called deep metaphors that shape what people think hear say and do Drawing on thousands of one on one interviews in more than thirty countries Gerald Zaltman and Lindsay Zaltman describe how some of the world s most successful companies as well as small firms not for profits and social enterprises have successfully leveraged deep metaphors to solve a wide variety of marketing problems Marketing Metaphoria should convince you that everything consumers think and do is influenced at unconscious levels and it will give you access to those deeper levels of thinking Taking-Place: Non-Representational Theories and Geography Ben Anderson,2016-04-01

Order, Crisis, and Redemption Peter Langford, Saul Newman, 2023-07-01 Recent events such as the COVID 19 pandemic the invasion of Ukraine the rise of right wing populism the growing economic inequality and political instability and the climate emergency are indicative of the decomposition of the global liberal democratic order Order Crisis and Redemption is a critical reflection on the limitations of Carl Schmitt's political theology an attempt to think with and beyond Schmitt about the parameters of this crisis Through a sustained critical engagement ranging over Schmittian texts including the lesser known from the 1920s to the 1970s the book elaborates three main themes that preoccupied Schmitt order crisis and redemption In times of crisis as with the one we are currently experiencing we are faced with the dilemma of either shoring up the current political and legal order through ever more authoritarian measures or radically transforming it Redemption in the full theological sense of the word thus implies the possibility of a new understanding of ethics and politics aimed at creating a more just world

In the World Interior of Capital Peter Sloterdijk, 2014-10-16 Displaying the distinctive combination of narration and philosophy for which he is well known this new book by Peter Sloterdijk develops a radically new account of globalization at the beginning of the twenty first century The author takes seriously the historical and philosophical consequences of the notion of the earth as a globe arriving at the thesis that what is praised or decried as globalization is actually the end phase in a process that began with the first circumnavigation of the earth and that one can already discern elements of a new era beyond globalization In the end phase of globalization the world system completed its development and as a capitalist system came to determine all conditions of life Sloterdijk takes the Crystal Palace in London the site of the first world exhibition in 1851 as the most expressive metaphor for this situation The palace demonstrates the inevitable exclusivity of globalization as the construction of a comfort structure that is the establishment and expansion of a world interior whose boundaries are invisible yet virtually insurmountable from without and which is inhabited by one and a half billion winners of globalization three times this number are left standing outside the door
