The New Face Of Evangelicalism An International Symposium On The Lausanne Covenant:

The New Face of Evangelicalism C. René Padilla, 1976 Evangelicals and the End of Christendom Hugh

Chilton, 2019-12-09 Exploring the response of evangelicals to the collapse of Greater Christian Britain in Australia in the long 1960s this book provides a new religious perspective to the end of empire and a fresh national perspective to the end of Christendom In the turbulent 1960s two foundations of the Western world rapidly and unexpectedly collapsed Christendom marked by the dominance of discursive Christianity in public culture and Greater Britain the powerful sentimental and strategic union of Britain and its settler societies disappeared from the collective mental map with startling speed To illuminate these contemporaneous global shifts this book takes as a case study the response of Australian evangelical Christian leaders to the cultural and religious crises encountered between 1959 and 1979 Far from being a narrow national study this book places its case studies in the context of the latest North American and European scholarship on secularisation imperialism and evangelicalism Drawing on a wide range of archival sources it examines critical figures such as Billy Graham Fred Nile and Hans Mol as well as issues of empire counter cultural movements and racial and national identity This study will be of particular interest to any scholar of Evangelicalism in the twentieth century It will also be a useful resource for academics looking into the wider impacts of the decline of Christianity and the British Empire in Western civilisation

Evangelicalism and Fundamentalism in the United Kingdom during the Twentieth Century David W. Bebbington, David Ceri Jones, 2013-10-03 Historians have sometimes argued and popular discourse certainly assumes that evangelicalism and fundamentalism are identical In the twenty first century when Islamic fundamentalism is at the centre of the world's attention whether or not evangelicalism should be seen as the Christian version of fundamentalism is an important matter for public understanding The essays that make up this book analyse this central question Drawing on empirical evidence from many parts of the United Kingdom and from across the course of the twentieth century the essays show that fundamentalism certainly existed in Britain that evangelicals did sometimes show tendencies in a fundamentalist direction but that evangelicalism in Britain cannot simply be equated with fundamentalism The evangelical movement within Protestantism that arose in the wake of the eighteenth century revival exerted an immense influence on British society over the two subsequent centuries Christian fundamentalism by contrast had its origins in the United States following the publication of The Fundamentals a series of pamphlets issued to ministers between 1910 and 1915 that was funded by California oilmen While there was considerable British participation in writing the series the term fundamentalist was invented in an exclusively American context when in 1920 it was coined to describe the conservative critics of theological liberalism The fundamentalists in Britain formed only a small section of evangelical opinion that declined over time Evangelical Theology Uche Anizor, Robert B. Price, Hank Voss, 2021-04-08 This book provides a lively introduction to the exciting discipline of evangelical theology Aligning with the global Lausanne Movement the authors identify Scripture and mission as methodological centres of evangelical theology Evangelical Theology highlights the key evangelical themes of atonement conversion justification and sanctification as well as recent developments around trinitarian theology and pneumatology

Fe y Desplazamiento Christopher M. Warner, 2007-12-01 This provocative book offers a revisionist history of the transdenominational initiatives of English evangelicals from 1965 to 2000 Warner provides an authoritative theological analysis and a constructive sociological critique This is an invaluable study for all those in the academy the church and wider society who want a fuller understanding of the social and religious significance and the evolutionary dynamics of this influential and diversifying religious tradition In Search of Christ in Latin America Samuel Escobar, 2019-11-30 Noted theologian Samuel Escobar offers a magisterial survey and study of Christology in Latin America In Search of Christ in Latin America examines the figure of Jesus Christ in the context of Latin American culture starting with the first Spanish influence in the sixteenth century and moving through popular religiosity and liberationist themes in Catholic and Protestant thought of the twentieth and twenty first centuries culminating in an important description of the work of the Fraternidad Teol gica Latinoamericana FTL Escobar provides theological historical and cultural analysis of Latin American understandings of Christ and places liberation theology within its social and revolutionary context This book is an important step toward a rich understanding of the spiritual reality and powerful message of Jesus Crossing Boundaries, Redefining Faith Michael Clawson, April Stace, 2016-11-08 The Emerging Church Movement an eclectic conversation about how Christianity needs to evolve for our postmodern world has been breaking traditional bounds and stirring up controversy for more than two decades This volume is the first academic work to adopt an interdisciplinary approach to understanding this complex and boundary crossing phenomenon Containing contributions by researchers from a diverse set of disciplines this book brings together historical sociological ethnographic anthropological and theological approaches to offer the most thorough and multifaceted description of the Emerging Church Movement to date Contributors

Juan Jose Barreda Toscano Dee Yaccino Gerardo Marti Lloyd Chia Jason Wollschleger James S Bielo Jon Bialecki Heather Josselyn Cranson Xochitl Alviso Chris James Tim Snyder A Gospel for the Poor David C. Kirkpatrick, 2019-07-12 In 1974 the International Congress on World Evangelization met in Lausanne Switzerland Gathering together nearly 2 500 Protestant evangelical leaders from more than 150 countries and 135 denominations it rivaled Vatican II in terms of its influence But as David C Kirkpatrick argues in A Gospel for the Poor the Lausanne Congress was most influential because for the first time theologians from the Global South gained a place at the table of the world s evangelical leadership bringing their nascent brand of social Christianity with them Leading up to this momentous occasion after World War II there emerged in various parts of the world an embryonic yet discernible progressive coalition of thinkers who were embedded in global evangelical organizations and educational institutions such as the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students and the International Fellowship of Evangelical Mission Theologians Within these groups Latin Americans had an especially strong voice for they had honed their theology as a religious minority having defined it against two perceived ideological excesses Marxist inflected Catholic liberation theology and the conservative political loyalties of the U S Religious Right In this context transnational conversations provoked the rise of progressive evangelical politics the explosion of Christian mission and relief organizations and the infusion of social justice into the very mission of evangelicals around the world and across a broad spectrum of denominations Drawing upon bilingual interviews and archives and personal papers from three continents Kirkpatrick adopts a transnational perspective to tell the story of how a Cold War generation of progressive Latin Americans including seminal figures such as Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar developed named and exported their version of social Christianity to an evolving coalition of global evangelicals
