The Little Warrior Sir Pelham Grenville

Wodehouse, 1920-01-01 Freddie Rooke gazed coldly at the breakfast table Through a gleaming eye glass he inspected the revolting object which Parker his faithful man had placed on a plate before him Parker His voice had a ring of pain Sir What s this Poached egg sir Freddie averted his eyes with a silent shudder It looks just like an old aunt of mine he said Remove it He got up and wrapping his dressing gown about his long legs took up a stand in front of the fireplace From this position he surveyed the room his shoulders against the mantelpiece his calves pressing the club fender It was a cheerful oasis in a chill and foggy world a typical London bachelor s breakfast room The walls were a restful gray and the table set for two a comfortable arrangement in white and silver Eggs Parker said Freddie solemnly are the acid test Yes sir If on the morning after you can tackle a poached egg you are all right If not not And don t let anybody tell you otherwise No sir Freddie pressed the palm of his hand to his brow and sighed It would seem then that I must have revelled a trifle whole heartedly last night I was possibly a little blotto Not whiffled perhaps but indisputably blotto Did I make much noise coming in No sir You were very quiet Ah A dashed bad sign Freddie moved to the table and poured himself a cup of coffee The cream jug is to your right sir said the helpful Parker Let it remain there Caf noir for me this morning As noir as it can jolly well stick Freddie retired to the fireplace and sipped delicately As far as I can remember it was Ronny Devereux birthday or something Mr Martyn s I think you said sir That s right Algy Martyn s birthday and Ronny and I were the guests It all comes back to me I wanted Derek to roll along and join the festivities he s never met Ronny but he gave it a miss Quite right A chap in his position has responsibilities Member of Parliament and all that Besides said Freddie earnestly driving home the point with a wave of his spoon he s engaged to be married You must remember that Parker I will endeavor to sir Sometimes said Freddie dreamily I wish I were engaged to be married Sometimes I wish I had some sweet girl to watch over me and No I don t by Jove It would give me the utter pip Is Sir Derek up yet Parker Getting up sir See that everything is all right will you I mean as regards the foodstuffs and what not I want him to make a good breakfast He s got to meet his mother this morning at Charing Cross She s legging it back from the Riviera Indeed sir Freddie shook his head You wouldn t speak in that light careless tone if you knew her Well you ll see her tonight She s coming here to dinner Yes sir Miss Mariner will be here too A foursome Tell Mrs Parker to pull up her socks and give us something pretty ripe Soup fish all that sort of thing She knows And let s have a stoup of malvoisie from the oldest bin This is a special occasion Her ladyship will be meeting Miss Mariner for the first time sir You ve put your finger on it Absolutely the first time on this or any stage We must all rally round and make the thing a success I am sure Mrs Parker will strain every nerve sir Parker moved to the door carrying the rejected egg and stepped aside to allow a tall well built man of about thirty to enter Good morning Sir Derek Morning Parker Parker slid softly from the room Derek Underhill sat down at the table He was a strikingly handsome man with a strong forceful face dark lean and cleanly shaven He was one of those men whom a stranger would instinctively pick out of a crowd as worthy of note His only defect was that his heavy eyebrows gave him at times an expression which was a little forbidding Women however had never been repelled
