The Mystics of Islam Reynold A. Nicholson, 2015-06-02 Excerpt from The Mystics of Islam If Judaism Christianity and Islam have no little in common in spite of their deep dogmatic differences the spiritual content of that common element can best be appreciated in Jewish Christian and Islamic mysticism which bears equal testimony to that ever deepening experience of the soul when the spiritual worshipper whether he be follower of Moses or Jesus or Mohammed turns whole heartedly to God As the Quest Series has already supplied for the first time those interested in such matters with a simple general introduction to Jewish mysticism so it now provides an easy approach to the study of Islamic mysticism on which in English there exists no separate introduction About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections

Sufism: The Mysticism of Islam Reynold a. Nicholson, 2010-04 Experts Sufism the religious philosophy of Islam is described in the oldest extant definition as the apprehension of divine realities and Mohammedan mystics are fond of calling themselves Ahl al Haqq the followers of the Real In attempting to set forth their central doctrines from this point of view I shall draw to some extent on materials which I have collected during the last twenty years for a general history of Islamic mysticism a subject so vast and many sided that several large volumes would be required to do it anything like justice Here I can only sketch in broad outline certain principles methods and characteristic features of the inner life as it has been lived by Moslems of every class and condition from the eighth century of our era to the present day The Sufi who sets out to seek God calls himself a traveler salik he advances by slow stages maqamat along a path tariqat to the goal of union with Reality
