The Sequential Dynamics of Narrative Ken Ireland,2001 Building on critical theories of narrative this study analyses temporal and continuity relations in fiction

Katherine Mansfield and Literary Impressionism Julia van Gunsteren,2024-08-26 The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert Letellier,2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work These included such women as Penelope Aubin Jane Barker Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies the Utopian novel the science fictional voyage and the epistolary novel This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies It then provides entries for a wide ranging selection of works which cover fictional theoretical historical political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels their editions and any critical material available on each The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period The volume concludes with extensive indexes

The Completion of Judges David J. H. Beldman,2017-05-08 The last five chapters of the book of Judges chs 17 21 contain some shocking and bizarre stories and precisely how these stories relate to the rest of the book is a major question in scholarship on the book Leveraging work from literary studies and hermeneutics Beldman reexamines Judges 17 21 with the aim of discerning the strategies of ending that are at work in these chapters The author identifies and describes a number of strategies of ending in Judges 17 21 including the strategy of completion the strategy of circularity and the strategy of entrapment The temporal configuration of Judges and especially the nonlinear chronology that chapters 17 21 expose also receive due attention All of this offers fresh insights into the place and function of Judges 17 21 in the context of the whole book Twenty Years of French Literary Criticism Freeman G. Henry, 1994
