The Ginseng Hunters Notebook The New Issues Press Poetry Series:

The Ginseng Hunter's Notebook Deanne Lundin, 1999 The Ginseng Hunter's Notebook records a vital and eccentric dance for life In poems of brilliant texture and intimate gesture the poet wounded yet resilient evokes a music as compelling and fresh as birdsong In her love of language and in her reasons for travel Deanne Lundin calls to mind Elizabeth Bishop as she searches for something to name home and for the knowledge to solve the equations of the human heart Here is the wayfarer's journal in which each item has been carefully observed and duly entered as though it might harbor the one true remedy for the soul's longing Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1999 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998 The Kenyon Review John Crowe Ransom, 2008 Editor winter 1939 autumn 1941 J C Ransom Third Coast, 1999 Less of Her Paula McLain, 1999 Poetry In Paula McLain's book LESS OF HER the soul steps forward and sings a torch song The song is both fevered and measured bearing the double burden of an almost unforgivable past and the possibility of mercy in the future And the voice is naked urgent unflinching a girl's voice in the mouth of a woman or a woman's voice in the mouth of a girl This is a first book to listen to again and again Bruce Smith New Numbers Josie Kearns, 2000 These poems step forth with their eyes closed trust that some soil will support their weight Josie Kearns begins where language leaves off this is not whimsical reinventions but a strong case for extension that flowers from need The poet finds both ease and struggle in the infinite her lines push through their landscapes as if the air will both carry and resist them This understanding of the nature of things makes Kearns poetry so gently balanced so willing to let life maneuver itself through the clutter Her poems have a clairvoyant quality she is one of the messengers between worlds the medium for what until now was nameless

Water Becomes Bone Chad Oness, 2000 The spare elegant poems in Water Becomes Bone confront with unusual clarity the joys and the anguish of living with others The contradictions of this considered life a son's affections and a son's rage the bones moving gracefully under a child's skin and the bones of another child resting under the earth are considered with honesty and with a wrenching beauty Gary Young Monument in a Summer Hat James Armstrong, 1999 Poetry In James Armstrong's pellucid poetry the drifting of autumn leaves shares space with the baroque architecture of nineteenth century England A woman peruses a book of pharmaceuticals in a coffee shop looking for hints of happiness And a naked woman wearing hip boots stares out of the 1940s in a photograph hung in a Michigan bar Twilight is always moving the shadows of our urban lives out toward the country our inherited past where a deer or a heron waits like an angel glimpsed through the fog Armstrong's poems elucidate the mystery and beauty of borders temporal and historical as well as geographical while his pastoral sensibility floods our senses with images of the natural world seemingly stopping time edifying us and helping us for a few moments anyway to transcend our enervated contemporary lives Reading this book is like diving into a deep lake It cleanses the soul Granite Dives Margaret Y. Rabb, 1999 In this book poems about motherhood and domesticity mingle with poems about love and nature most of them formal all of them crystalline and full of an odd bumpy vernacular sense of voice Whimsical and urgent in turn the style is the subject in Granite Dives and indeed one hears echoes of Stevens but also A R Ammons whose nuanced syntactical tightrope walking Rabb has somehow managed to appropriate without imitating New Issues Press These are poems of high intelligence and formal beauty Never straining for effect they pour forth their music in a crystal stream Carolyn Kizer
