The Mystical City Of God Abridged:

The Life of Mary As Seen by the Mystics Raphael Brown, 1991-11 A masterpiece that combines the visions of four great Catholic mystics into one coherent story on the life of the Blessed Virgin Mary Based primarily on the famous revelations of Ven Anne Catherine Emmerich and Ven Mary of Agreda it also includes many episodes described in the writings of St Bridget of Sweden and St Elizabeth of Schenau To read this book therefore is to share in the magnificent visions granted to four of the most privileged souls in the history of the Church In complete harmony with the Gospel story this book reads like a masterfully written novel It includes such fascinating details as the birth and infancy of Mary her espousal to St Joseph and her Assumption into Heaven where she was crowned Queen of Heaven and Earth For young and old alike The Life of Mary As Seen by the Mystics will forever impress the reader with an inspiring and truly unforgettable understanding of the otherwise unknown facts concerning Mary and the Holy Family Mary, Mother of God Barbara Haeger, Elliott Wise, James Clifton, 2023-12-28 By clothing the Word with her flesh the Virgin Mary made God visible manifesting Christ as a perfect image of the Father By virtue of this archetypal artistry of Incarnation Mary mediates the tradition of Christian image making This volume explores images of the Mother of God in early modern devotion piety and power The book is divided into four sections the first three of which link the subjects thematically and geographically in Europe while the last one follows Mary's legacy Contributors include Elliott D Wise Anna Dlabava James Clifton Kim Butler Wingfield Barbara Baert Steven Ostrow Barbara Haeger Shelley Perlove Cristina Cruz Gonzalez and Mehreen Chida Razvi

The Contest for Knowledge Maria Gaetana Agnesi, Diamante Medaglia Faini, Aretafila Savini de' Rossi, Accademia de' Ricovrati, 2007-11-01 At a time when women were generally excluded from scholarly discourse in the intellectual centers of Europe four extraordinary female letterate proved their parity as they lectured in prominent scientific and literary academies and published in respected journals During the Italian Enlightenment Maria Gaetana Agnesi Giuseppa Eleonora Barbapiccola Diamante Medaglia Faini and Aretafila Savini de Rossi were afforded unprecedented deference in academic debates and epitomized the increasing ability of women to influence public discourse The Contest for Knowledge reveals how these four women used the methods and themes of their male counterparts to add their voices to the vigorous and prolific debate over the education of women during the eighteenth century In the texts gathered here the women discuss the issues they themselves thought most urgent for the equality of women in Italian society specifically and in European culture more broadly Their thoughts on this important subject reveal how crucial the eighteenth century was in the long history of debates about women in the academy Gratitude and Grit Leo Wollenweber, 2022-05-03 Gratitude and Grit tells the startling story of the simple friar whose loving concern for everyday people dramatically transformed thousands of lives A warm straightforward account of Casey's life from someone who knew him personally this book is a testament to the fact that God is present in even the most unlikely places Detroit in the first half of the twentieth century was a place of industry a place of hard work grit and determination an unexpected place to find miracles But God does some of his best work in unexpected places and so Detroit became home to one of the Church s most gentle and humble souls a Capuchin Franciscan now known as Blessed Solanus Casey From his simple cell at the monastery where he worked as doorkeeper Casey s ministry of spiritual counsel and divine healing captivated the Motor City and eventually the world This reissue of Meet Solanus Casey Miracle Worker and Spiritual Counselor includes a new foreword from Edward Foley OFM Cap vice postulator for the cause of Solanus Casey s canonization

The Short Chronicle Jeanne de Jussie,2007-11-01 Jeanne de Jussie 1503 61 experienced the Protestant Reformation from within the walls of the Convent of Saint Clare in Geneva In her impassioned and engaging Short Chronicle she offers a singular account of the Reformation reporting not only on the larger clashes between Protestants and Catholics but also on events in her convent devious city councilmen who lied to trusting nuns lecherous soldiers who tried to kiss them and iconoclastic intruders who smashed statues and burned paintings Throughout her tale Jussie highlights women s roles on both sides of the conflict from the Reformed women who came to her convent in an attempt to convert the nuns to the Catholic women who ransacked the shop of a Reformed apothecary Above all she stresses the Poor Clares faithfulness and the good men and women who came to them in their time of need ending her story with the nuns arduous journey by foot from Reformed Geneva to Catholic Annecy First published in French in 1611 Jussie s Short Chronicle is translated here for an English speaking audience for the first time providing a fresh perspective on struggles for religious and political power in sixteenth century Geneva and a rare glimpse at early modern monastic life

Floridoro Moderata Fonte,2007-11-01 The first original chivalric poem written by an Italian woman Floridoro imbues a strong feminist ethos into a hypermasculine genre Dotted with the usual characteristics dark forests illusory palaces enchanted islands seductive sorceresses Floridoro is the story of the two greatest knights of a bygone age the handsome Floridoro who risks everything for love and the beautiful Risamante who helps women in distress while on a quest for her inheritance Throughout Moderata Fonte 1555 92 vehemently defends women s capacity to rival male prowess in traditionally male dominated spheres And her open criticism of women s lack of education is echoed in the plights of various female characters who must depend on unreliable men First published in 1581 Floridoro remains a vivacious and inventive narrative by a singular poet

Complete Writings Isotta Nogarola,2007-11-01 Renowned in her day for her scholarship and eloquence Isotta Nogarola 1418 66 remained one of the most famous women of the Italian Renaissance for centuries after her death And because she was one of the first women to carve out a place for herself in the male dominated republic of letters Nogarola served as a crucial role model for generations of aspiring female artists and writers This volume presents English translations of all of Nogarola s extant works and highlights just how daring and original her convictions were In her letters and orations Nogarola elegantly synthesized Greco Roman thought with biblical teachings And striding across the stage in public she lectured the Veronese citizenry on everything from history and religion to politics and morality But the most influential of

Nogarola's works was a performance piece Dialogue on Adam and Eve in which she discussed the relative sinfulness of Adam and Eve thereby opening up a centuries long debate in Europe on gender and the nature of woman and establishing herself as an important figure in Western intellectual history This book will be a must read for teachers and students of Women's Studies as well as of Renaissance literature and history The Complete Poems Gaspara Stampa,2010-10-30 Gaspara Stampa was lauded for her singing during her lifetime but her success and critical reputation as a poet emerged only after her verse was republished in the early eighteenth century Her poetry runs the gamut of human emotion ranging from ecstasy over a consummated love affair to despair at its end While these tormented works and their multiple male addressees have led to speculation that Stampa may have been one of Venice's famous courtesans they can also be read as a rebuttal of typical assumptions about women's roles Championed by Rainer Maria Rilke among others she has more recently been celebrated by feminist scholars for her distinctive and original voice and her challenge to convention This is a translation of Stampa into English Laura Battiferra and Her Literary Circle Laura Battiferra degli Ammannati,2007-11-01 Internationally known during her lifetime Laura Battiferra 1523-89 was a gifted and prolific poet in Renaissance Florence The author of nearly 400 sonnets remarkable for their subtlety intricate narrative structure and learned allusions Battiferra who was married to the prominent sculptor and architect Bartolomeo Ammannati traversed an elite literary and artistic network circulating her verse in a complex and intellectually fecund exchange with some of the most illustrious figures in Italian history In this bilingual anthology Victoria Kirkham gathers Battiferra's most essential writing including newly discovered poems which provide modern readers with a valuable social chronicle of sixteenth century Italy and the courtly culture of the Counter Reformation The Divine Life of the Most Holy Virgin Ven Mary of Agreda,1997-03 A shorter and faster reading popular abridgement of the Mystical City of God this book just flows and flows It includes Our Lady's participation in the events of Our Lord's Passion and death It shows how the Angels served the Blessed Virgin how the devils waged war against her the special graces she received such as continual Eucharistic presence of Our Lord after she received Communion frequent visits to Heaven during her life on earth etc Imprimatur
